CLAM MILITARY LAWS

1. If you can see the flashes from the enemies' guns in battle, he can see yours too.
2. The enemy diversion you have been ignoring will be the main attack.
3. The tough part about being an officer is that the troops don't know what they want, but they know for certain what they don't want.
4. Whenever you lose contact with the enemy, look behind you.
5. Happiness is a belt fed weapon.
6. As soon as you are served hot chow in the field, it rains.
7. Field experience is something you never get until just after you need it.
8. If it's stupid but it works, it isn't stupid.
9. Never cover a dead body with your own in hopes of looking like you're one of the casualties. Even using his cadaver is a stretch to avoid being shot "just in case."
10. Mines are equal opportunity weapons.
