

THEME PARTY IDEAS

Having your hostess host a theme party may spark more interest and encourage more guests to come to the party. Maybe offer sample-size lotions or soaps to everyone that participates. The possibilities are endless; use your imagination. Here are some examples:

Happy Hour Party - The hostess serves drinks and munchies.

Pina Colada Party

Strawberry Daiquiri Party

Build your own Sundaes - Ask guests to bring the toppings, hostess provides ice cream

Wine & Cheese Party - Hostess serves wine & cheese.

Saturday Brunch - Everyone brings a small dish to share

Summer sizzle - Have each guest bring their favorite way to cool down to the party and let them judge who is the coolest.

Summer Salads - Ask each guest to bring their favorite summer salad recipe and exchange them. Maybe bring samples.

Sports - Decorate your table with your favorite sports teams themes and colors.

Patio Party - Have a party outside on the patio and serve refreshing beverages.

Garden Party - Have everyone wear their favorite garden hat.

Strawberry shortcake

Very berry party - make various berry desserts, cheesecakes, or ice cream, etc

Creative hat contest - offer a prize for the best hat.

Red, White, & Blue - Have the guests wear patriotic colors

Ten to Midnight Party - Have a late night party

Recipe Swap - everyone brings his or her favorite recipe to share and swap

Christmas in July

Hawaiian Shirt Party

Build your own Nachos/Tacos - hostess provides meat & chips, guests bring toppings

Potluck Party - Have each guest bring their favorite dish to share

Around the world - Ask each guest to bring a dish from a different country

Back to college/Off to college

Big Chicken Party - Great way to meet new people or neighbors. Invite people you don't know or don't know well.

Men only party - Spend the afternoon watching sports, drinking beer, eating, and shopping for the wives. As an incentive, for each order over $25 (or whatever), you'll wrap the gifts for them.

Chocolate Lover's Party - Each guest brings their favorite death by chocolate dessert.

Monday Blues - Can only be held on Mondays

Lunch Hour Party - Have a quick party in the break room over lunch hour. Provide subs or deli sandwiches.

Cookie Swap - Ask each guest to bring 2-dozen cookies. Place them all on the table and everyone gets 1 or 2 of each kind to take home.
