High Germany

1. A - broad as I was walk - ing,
2. "Oh! false were then your prom - is - es,
3. "I fear the treach' - rous journ - ey,
4. "I fear no par - ents' an - ger, and a - walk - ing a - lone,

when first you won my love, bitt - er cold and burn - ing heat, nor an - y dar - ing foe.

I heard two love - ers talk - ing,
To keep me e - ver at your side,
Rough roads and ston - y mount - ains, Since now I am res - olv - ed and a - mak - ing their moan; though a - far you should rove.

they will wound your tend - er feet.
a - long with you to go;

Said the old - er one to the fond - er one Do not me for - sake, pi - ty on me take,
To your kins - men, too, you will prove un - true,
And in drought or snow, in weal or woe

1

F   C   Bb

"Bon - ny lass I must a - way,
For great is my woe;
If from them you go,
I'll prove kind, as you shall see,

Dm   F   Dm

For the King he has com - mand - ed us Through France, Spain, bon - ny Ire - land For maids must bide at their par - ents' side,
When the drums do beat, and the trump - ets sound and his or - ders I must o - bey."

a - long with you I will go."
while men do face the dar - ing foe."
in the wars of High Germ - an - y."