

The Jolly Ploughboy

1. Come, all you jol - ly plough - boys, and help me to sing;
2. were lov - ing broth - ers, two broth - ers of old,
3. moil - ed, we've toil - ed through mire and through
4. Ap - ril, here is May, here is June and Ju - ly;
5. when we have a - pitch - ed up ev - er - y sheaf,

1. I will sing in the praise of you all,
2. And of old these two bro - thers were born;
3. No com - fort at all can we find;
4. What a pleas - ure to see the corn grow!
5. And a - glean - ed up ev - er - y ear,

1. For, if we don't la - bour, how shall there be bread?
2. The one was a shep - herd a tend - er of sheep,
3. We'll sit down, and sing, and drive dull care a - way;
4. In Aug - ust it rip' - neth; we reap, and sheaves tie,
5. With - out more ad - o we'll to plough and to sow
