From The Lay Rector of EC 80

By the time you read this whether on line or in the mail, EC 80 will be upon us! I marvel at how these past few months of preparation have flown by. We are blessed with a truly wonderful and vibrant team and in an earlier letter to them I mentioned a reading from Forward Day by Day....'what we are and what we have will become tools that we may use to do His will. Eyes to see the need, words to console and comfort, hands to reach out and heal, ears to listen patiently and skills to nourish and grow.' Sounds like Cursillo to me!

When I first began this incredible journey as Rector, I taped the names of all 79 Weekend Rectors to my refrigerator. How humbling and awesome to be a part of this amazing group of people and a part of this incredible experience.

As each of us in the 4th day read this, please remember prayers for the Pilgrims and team members, Palanca, wake-up and especially Clausura. Christ is counting on us.

Let us hold firmly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. Let us be concerned for one another and let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.

Hebrews 10:23-24

Blessings abound!

Jean Hislop, Lay Rector – EC 80

Palanca for EC 80

Jean has requested Palanca for Day 1 & Day 2 for Pilgrims and for Day 1 only for Team. Please separate the Palanca for Pilgrims and Team, keep Day 1 and Day 2 separate for Pilgrims and place each group in alphabetical order by last name. This will help us insure that the Palanca gets to the right person at the right time.

Thanks,

Cindy & Richard, Palanca Co-Heads

The Electronic DeColores Press

This is the first time the DeColores Press is being sent via email. I want to thank all of you who have provided email addresses. More than 11 hundred copies of the DeColores Press are being distributed this spring. 34% of them are being sent via email. I know we can do better. Please encourage your fellow Cursillistas to provide us with email addresses by simply sending them, along with the their name(s) to

EC.Cursillo@gmail.com

It will save us much time and free up significant financial resources to provide scholarships and to pay for the weekends. And..... Don't forget to keep us up to date with email changes. If your Internet capable friend want to see what they are missing just have them got to http://www.geocities.com/cursillo_ec/

This electronic version of the DeColores Press should be available there soon if it is not already.

There are now separate email and snail mail versions of the DeColores Press. The email version contains more information than the snail mail version. Limiting the printed version to four pages in order to keep our printing costs down gets increasingly difficult as time progresses, especially when we have a Cursillo weekend as large as EC80 is turning out to be.

Hopefully the email version will become more pleasing to the eye as we move forward. This time just making the electronic version a reality was enough of a challenge. Many thanks to everyone who contributed to this effort.

Richard Peterson, DeColores Press Editor

PS – The Denny's Reunion Group of Greenville would also appreciate getting more email addresses set up as they are the ones who have to stick mailing labels and postage stamps onto the snail mail versions. A nice time for servant ministry, bonding and friendship, but one for which we can easily find a substitute.

Upcoming Weekends

EC 80 ~ Jean Hislop, Lay Rector ~ April 22-26, 2009

EC 81 ~ George Roraback, Lay Rector ~ November 4-8, 2009

EC 82 ~ Connie Whitney, Lay Rector ~ April 21-25, 2010

EC 83 ~ Chuck Harrill, Lay Rector ~ November 3-7, 2010

Message from your Secretariat

Greetings to all during this Lenten season. We all hope you are working and praying in your journey as we approach Easter.

We hope that you have been able to send in your $50 contribution to our fundraiser (Carol Orr, 4505 Mobius Rd., Fayetteville, NC 28312). If you have not, please consider doing so. It is needed and will be greatly appreciated by so many.

News that I want to get to you; first, Lisa Richey has, after many years, stepped down as our Web Mistress and passed this along to Bill Orr. Lisa, we all send you our heartfelt thanks for your unselfish time. You're a model for all to see and follow. Thank you! Bill, we all wish you much success. Big shoes to fill, but you're the one to do it. God's speed and thank you for answering the call.

Linda Burney, also heartfelt thanks for all of us for your efforts as Secretary. Yours was a job that takes great pains to keep a record of our work and of keeping me on task. I personally thank you!..... Joanne Benedetto, welcome to our staff. You'll do a great job!

Please keep Joanne and Bill in your prayers as they undertake their new positions.

As this is our first attempt at the DeColores Press going online, let me or our Press editor, Richard Peterson (EC.Cursillo@gmail.com), know what you think, your opinion is valuable information for us in our efforts.

For the many that want Cursillo shirts, you can get them by contacting Mary Mac Shields... @ maryshields@ccs.k12.nc.us

Peace and blessing from your Secretariat,

David Cook, Ultreya Lay Director

From The Lay Rector EC 81 (Go God)

How truly thankful we all are to be able to serve Christ and our fellow Christians as EC81 prepares for our weekend of November 4-8, 2009. As team members, I believe God has brought us together to share in Christ's love and to feel the Holy Spirit within us. Let us all enjoy the love, spirit and friendship that prevails during Cursillo. Our team is coming together rapidly and each day God gives us new surprises.

We now have our three Spiritual Directors with Mal Roberts as the head and John Frazier and Rob Spainhour assisting. Other team heads and Rollos have been assigned. A head meeting is scheduled for March 28th followed by the first team meeting on April 26th at the Beach House at Trinity Center at 2 PM followed by attending the glorious Clausaura for EC80. Our 2nd and 3rd Team Meetings will be held July 28th and October 3rd respectively at the Diocesan House in Kinston from 10 AM to 2 PM. I have asked the Bishop to give the Sacrament talk and we are down on his calendar.

Remember to keep the staff and potential candidates for EC 80 in your prayers as they prepare for their April Cursillo. I pray for a spirit of love and compassion for this whole team, this wonderful group of workers. May you be blessed as you serve him as I have been blessed with the opportunity to work with you.

GO GOD!

George Roraback, Lay Rector – EC 81
