23 ARTISTS SHOW WORK FOR SALE

The numbers refer to the map of James Bay on the other side. Take a self-guided tour of 15 studio/galleries to view the work of 23 James Bay artists. Meet the artists, enjoy the art and perhaps take home an original work. As you walk the streets look for the easels that will indicate one of the 15 locations to stop and enjoy home-grown professional art. Plan for a full day and enjoy a lunch along the way.

LOCATIONS EAST OF MENZIES STREET

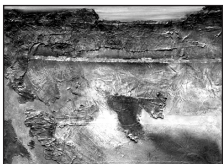

1. Angela Lee McIntyre, Elaine White, Edith Artner
32 Paddon Street—Tel 388 4378

Angela Lee, Emily Carr grad in photography and film-making, is a painter whose abstract acrylic work explores colours and textures of the sublime and the structures of life and spirit.

Elaine has worked with clay for over fifteen years and is a graduate of the Sheridan College of Art and Design ceramics program in Ontario. She creates functional pottery.

Edith is a graduate of UVIC's Theatre Dept. in Set Design. Having grown up in Austria, her European sensibility and her sense of "play" contribute to her designs and installations.

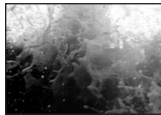

2. Roberta Pyx Sutherland
602 Dallas Road—Tel 220 4887

Roberta: "Contemporary landscapes with luminous horizons and deep texture are inspired by satellite imagery, paleo-botany and the traditions of map-making."

3. Bonnie Laird
134 St. Andrews Street—Tel 360 1942

Bonnie, University of Alberta grad in painting and printmaking, is a painter working in oils with rich, saturated colours and focusing on figures—industrial workers and past family members.

4. Meg Taylor at Emily Carr House
207 Government Street—Tel 477 9446

Meg, a BFA grad from UVic, has been photographing for 10 years. Her new work explores environmental influences on her mental and physical state through abstract forms of self-portraiture.

5. Donna Eichel, Dale Roberts, Jeff Molloy
140 Government Street—Tel 360 0939

Donna has been making abstract art for over two decades. Her particular interest is in the passage of time and its reflection in the detritus of machinery and construction.

Dale, MFA sculpture grad from SUNY, sculpts in stone and fibre, using maritime heritage to inspire both forms and intent. He is demonstrating stone carving and finished works.

Jeff: "Who we are and what we feel is the result of an accumulation of experiences gained through time. Art is an expression of our experience through this journey in time."

6. Tania Viesulas Bourne
#2-136 South Turner Street—Tel 595 5508

Tania works in watercolour, acrylic and mixed media. Her paintings are rich and vibrant—a dance of colour, light, motion and emotion. Original work and giclees are shown.

7. Gillian Gravenor, Douglas Leitch
115 Clarence Street—Tel 388 4773

Gillian: "I live in my studio cave with my cave-animal cats. Hunting and gathering trips yield curious bits and pieces of textiles, that I fashion into art."

Douglas is a fabric artist creating wearable art, incorporating textures and patterns from Chinese silk or brocade. Beginning with a garment, he hand attaches a variety of "found fabrics."

8. David Ladmore
#7- 103 Menzies Street—Tel 361 3243

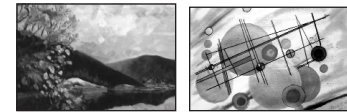

David: "My work is a response to the beauty and simplicity of the things I find around me. In figure and landscape, careful study reveals the undercurrents and rhythms of existence. It is an irresistible force."

LOCATIONS WEST OF MENZIES STREET

9. Eleanor Paine, Tony Paine
James Bay Beacon

20 Croft Street—Tel 380 6090
Eleanor and Tony both say their art is their passion. Eleanor gets all her inspiration from nature. When Tony paints he becomes part of the painting and it part of him—there is no separation. Eleanor and Tony met at the University of Birmingham and have spent a lifetime of 40 years painting together.

10. Kay Davies, Marion Edworthy
#26 - 416 Luxton Street (parallel to Dallas)—Tel 382 9666

Kay is an abstract painter working in vibrant, warm colours, employing watercolour, collage, India ink and acrylics. Letting the paint flow often directs the subject matter of a piece.

Marion, a native Victorian with a B. Ed in Art Education, is a painter. She has honed her skills by attending many workshops by visiting artists.

11. Marie Pinder, Angel D.Void
320 Niagara Street—Tel 388 4440

Marie, born in Winnipeg, is a painter whose recent work is impressionistic, colourful in value, yet serene in content. Her paintings and prints reside in many private collections.

Angel D.Void: "To reach for, to search deep inside my mind and to bring my vision to life—I express my art so that others can see who I am."

12. Bryony Wynne-Jones
#2-101 St. Lawrence Street—Tel 592 9395

Bryony is a painter rendering botanical and bird paintings in watercolour and mixed media. Her inspiration is exclusively from nature. You can sense her joy.

13. Kirsten Brand
222 Ontario Street—Tel 382 7658

Kirsten: "As a native Victorian, I succumbed early to the natural beauty around me and am continuously inspired to explore west coast imagery in a variety of forms and mediums."
