

We've come to know so very well
What's in your heart and mind.
The songs you write ring true for us
It happens every time.

We love you and respect you
For the gift of song you've shared
And for your generosity
To help those in despair.

Enough of silly rhyming though
Here's what we want to say.
We think that you're amazing
In many many ways.

Pretty amazing heart
Pretty amazing mind
Pretty amazing talent
Pretty amazing songs
Pretty amazing band
Pretty amazing shows
Pretty amazing....Neil

Happy Birthday!
