

Holloway's found in the book
"Historical Records of Randolph County, Ala. 1832 - 1900"

Probate notices from the Randolph Enterprise

30 April 1875

Mrs. I. W. Holloway died last week at her home on Big Tallapoosa.

Tax Sales

Taken from the Feb. 12, 1875 issue of the Randolph Enterprise. Full property description can be determined by examining the copy on file in the Department of Archives and History in Montgomery.

On March 1, 1875 the property belonging to the following named persons was to be sold at public auction to the highest bidder from the Court House in Wedowee.

Beat III

John Holloway

Beat VI - Township 20, Range 11

John Holloway

Death Index

Register of deaths Randolph Co., Ala. The information provided is name of deceased, date of death, place of birth, age at death, place of burial and the last space was for the name of the physician, mid-wife or head of family.

Myrtle Holloway, 1/6/1894, Ala., 3 yrs. 18 days, female, white, unknown, Beat 1, Campground Cem., Dr. A. W. Duke

Lenard Holloway, 6/20/1896, Carroll Co., Ga, male, white, Dysentery, Beat 2, Jordan Cem., Dr. J. M. Harrison

Infant of Rena Hallaway, 8/3/1896, , Al, 26 days, female, black, inanition, Beat 6, McBride's Graveyard, , Lucy Hallaway, head of family

Probate notices from the Jacksonville Republican

(there being no newspapers in Randolph Co. at this time, many of the probate notices were placed in the Jacksonville Republican in Benton (now Calhoun County)

6 March 1844

Bankruptcy Sale. On March 18th next in Wedowee, a large lot of notes, accounts, bonds, judgments, etc. to be surrendered in backruptcy by Francis M. Perryman, Wiley Martin McClendon, Euclidus Longshore, James Akens, Zechariah Holloway, William Williams, Samuel B. McClure, Samuel S. McQuarter, Samuel Wells, Levi R. Lawler, Alvis Q. Nicks and Joel T. Morrison.