Sheu Hau was a very diligent student who worked steadily and hard at all his subjects and made good progress. He showed dedication and determination in his work and had a positive attitude towards learning, never letting adverse circumstances or failure daunt him. He could always be counted on to put in his best effort and to arrive at a clear understanding of concepts.

Sheu Hau showed the same determination and commitment in his extra-curricular activities. He was the chairman of the Outdoor Activities Club. He participated actively in the Youth Leadership Training Camp for two years. He contributed his services and showed his organizational skills in such activities as hikes, campfires and training camps. Sheu Hau also participated actively in various College functions. In the Physical Fitness Test conducted in 1997, he won for himself a gold award.

Sheu Hau was a popular figure in class, with his friendly and easy-going manner. He showed initiative in establishing camaraderie with his fellow schoolmates and would always be actively involved in class activities. His classmates have mentioned his good social skills and pleasant personality.

In general, Sheu Hau is a young man of considerable potential who is capable of high standards of motivation and energy, as well as loyalty and service. There is no reason why he should not achieve success in whatever area of work he eventually takes up.
