"Julia Fordham is a fragile life-raft of a woman with a voice as vast as an oil tanker. Fifteen minutes of fame is a joke, Jules will be a world star forever" - Terry Staunton, NME

I started to compile this database in 1991, because of the complete lack of information about the releases and career of this multi talented woman. Only a handful of reference works even mention Julia, and then often with incomplete or incorrect entries. Because of this research & verification have been very difficult, and I hope you will bear this in mind should you find this work incomplete. I also take no responsibility for any errors or misrepresentations within (but I welcome corrections and additions).

This work should not be viewed as commissioned or sponsored; I am completely independent, and not connected to anyone but myself (but hopefully that!).

1.1 THE LAYOUT

This work does not take preference in any format or country, where lacking it is due to the information available.

- CAPITAL letters denominates full album, all others singles/promos.

- Entries are arranged thus:

  Country of origin (e.g. UK),
  UK = United Kingdom, US = America, JPN = Japan, GER = Germany (=central Europe).

  Format (e.g. 7" or P 7"),
  P = Promotional Item, P KIT = Press Kit, MC = Music Cassette (album), MCS = Music Cassette Single,
  CDS = CD single (3" & 5" = refers to CD size), BOX = Box set, VHS = Video Tape,
  T = Tour (item; i.e. T SRT = Tour Shirt), PRG = Program, PTR = Poster, SRT = T-Shirt.

  Description (e.g. 2 track single),
  Comments "quoted" are dealers assessment of rarity.
  (Album/Single) means that the p/c is identical to regular album/single cover.
  P/C = Picture Cover, Ltd. Ed. = Limited Edition, P/D or Pic/Disc = Picture Disc, WLP = White Label Promo.

  Record code (e.g. YR 11),
  Release-deletion date, given in parenthesis (e.g. (Mar88- 90)),
  Or... in case of conflicting information: (Jun/Jul90-May91).
  DEL = Deleted (unknown when)
  - I have to add that the deletion dates, although "official" are mostly incorrect; they appear to have been deleted long before.

  Price, given in the currency of country of sale, not origin (e.g. $5/E9),
  This does NOT indicate value or recommended price, but is the lowest to highest prices that has been registered since this list was created. It is not recommended that you should use this other than as a very loose pointer of what to buy or sell for.

All chart histories within the UK top 40 (and lower where known) are individually noted.

Editorial remark/comment or definition/description, etc. in [brackets]

Note: UK videos use the PAL & US/Japanese videos use the NTSC broadcasting signal, these systems are incompatible with each other, and videos must be converted or played on an multi standard VCR.

- Happy Ever After was used as background music in a sexual assault scene in the film Listen To Me, US 1989. Directed by Douglas Day Stewart. Starring Kirk Cameron, Jami Gertz, Roy Scheider, Amanda Peterson & Tim Guilt.
- In 1989 Julia performed the song together with the 10 piece a capella group Ladysmith Black Mambazo, in a show celebrating the Declaration of Human Rights, held in the Arc de Triomphe, Paris, France.
- The song was featured in an Hong Kong soap opera, resulting in chart success & celebrity status there.
- Around September 1989, the single attained the no 1 position in the Japanese singles chart, and stayed there for several weeks!
- YR 15 entered the UK top 75 singles chart on 2-Jul-88; it peaked at 27th place; and was out of the charts by 3-Sep, a total of 9 weeks.
I Can't Help Myself --- initially to be the 1st single from Falling Forward

UK P MC : 1 track promo cassette , [no code]

- I Can't Help Myself was planned as the first single from the fourth album, but was changed the last minute in favour of Different Time, Different Place.

- the 6 Radio Clyde live tracks (see INDEX 1) substitute their respective studio tracks on this release

"I'm really pleased with it. I'm an unbearable perfectionist and it was very hard work but, at the end of it all, I feel that I've really done something, really achieved something. It took a while to get together, and at times it was very hard, but when I did the demo's, I knew I had something. After demo-ing the album I started to record with a producer but that didn't really work out. There was times when the whole thing was very traumatic and it was certainly an education."

- The debut album sold more than 150.000 copies in America, and over 500.000 worldwide.

- She received a gold disc for her album sales in the United Kingdom.

- CIRCA 4 entered the UK top 75 album chart on 18-Jun-88; it peaked at 20th place; and was out of the charts by 19-Nov, a total of 22 weeks.

JULIA FORDHAM/LIVE --- Japan only, live/studio compilation

JPN 5": JPN only 10 track p/d in (YR 23) p/c, VJD-2501 (1989) £18-22

A separate release of the 6 live tracks recorded at the Glasgow Pavilion in Scotland on November 5th 1988 (see INDEX 1), that also appeared on the UK limited, and regular Japanese edition of JULIA FORDHAM.

[This isn't a live CD, it's more like an edit of one; there's nothing wrong with the tracks per se, it contains for example, a powerful rendition of My Mistake, but the things that "make" a live recording; namely mistakes, continuity & audience interaction/response have been edited out & they've even sandwiched studio tracks inbetween live ones (at least on the UK edition the tracks are in sequence) to further add to the situation!]

I've heard the original concert, and there is certainly material for a "proper" live album there, let's hope that someday someone will realize this, and rectify this mistake with a reissue.]

The song was written by Tom Snow/Dean Pitchford, for the film The Butcher's Wife, and was originally meant to be sung by soundtrack veteran Linda Ronstadt, but due to circumstances, it was offered to Julia.

- The first international release not authored by Julia herself.

"If I had more time to think about it, I might have - like - you know, gone 'oh, maybe that's not the right thing for me'. Which I'm glad I didn't, because I just 'yeah, I like the song. I'll turn up...', met the people - did the song. And I felt quite chuffed, in a way, that they would recognize me as a vocal talent."
- Around April 1992, Mysterious Ways attained the no 1 spot in the Hong Kong singles chart!

- I have two conflicting sets of chart history for the single; both should be correct and must therefore be compiled differently... I include both:

1) YR 73 entered the UK top 50 singles chart on 1-Feb-92; it peaked at 18th place on 15-Feb; and was out of the charts by 14-Mar, a total of 6 weeks.

2) YR 73 entered the UK top 75 singles chart at 70th place on 12-Jan-92; it peaked at 19th place on 2-Feb; the following week it had fallen to 22nd; it then climbed two places to 20th, due to sales for Valentines day and the introduction of the box set; it was out of the top 50 by 8-Mar, a total of 8 weeks.

"... This album is very much an intimate late night affair.

"I think if you listen hard to the songs, there is a very positive feel about the music. It may be low key but I don't see myself as a depressive just because I do soulful material. [...]"

- Julia was Virgin Japan's top selling record artist in 1990!

- PORCELAIN attained the no 1 spot in the American "New Adult Contemporary" album chart!

- CIRCA 10 entered the UK top 75 album chart on 21-Oct-89; it peaked at 13th place; and was out of the charts by 25-Nov, a total of 5 weeks.
PORCELAIN; LIVE IN CONCERT --- the concert video

UK VHS : 13 track concert video, VVD 468 ( May90) £9.99 (new)

US VHS : apparently this lists Happy Ever After on the cover, but omits it on the tape.

A 60 minute video directed by Declan Lowney, consisting of highlights from the Hammersmith Odeon, Weymouth Pavilion and the Apollo Theatre in Oxford, intercut with interview sequences.

[This video is essential to all converted, and an excellent introduction to her works for new fans. But again it suffers from some of the same problems as the Live CD (audience and continuity out the window), 5 minutes music, then 5 minutes of interview etc. (the MTV legacy), which look very professional and stylish but leaves you with a slick, edited & controlled environment. Apart from that it's highly recommended.]

UK P VHS : 1 track promo video (22 Sep88) , £10
UK P VHS : "very rare" promo video on compilation tape , £7-15

All formats of the single feature the re-recorded, up-tempo radio version.

"It was meant to be a joke! [...] It's meant be be a light-hearted look at the dichotomy that women face today. I'm trying to say that actually, maybe women of the 80's don't really know what the lie of the land is. There's a sort of split - on one hand you're terribly together and a really happening person and then occasionally, you have that vulnerability. I do believe that the most important thing to come out of the feminist movement is for women to have the space to be the people that they want - without pressure."

"[...] If anything, I want to be the Woman Of Forever, not just of the one decade. And anyway, now that we're in the 90's, does this mean I'm redundant? I bloody well hope not!"

3. OTHER PROJECTS
Chronologically arranged projects not directly related to regular releases.

ROBIN HOOD: PRINCE OF THIEVES --- U.S. film

There were actually two versions of (Everything I Do) I Do It For You recorded for Robin Hood:

One by Bryan Adams, written by Adams/Robert John 'Mutt' Lange; and the other, a duet between Peter Cetera (formerly of Chicago) and Julia Fordham called Tis You - the same tune - but with lyrics by Cetera, and a different arrangement - in mediaeval style with harps and mandolins.

Unfortunately the producers of the film decided at the last minute to take the "safe" choice in the traditional rock ballad of Adams' version, and this gave him the longest running no 1 single in British chart history!

[As I am writing this,(Everything I Do) I Do It For You* comes up on my MTV. Will this song haunt us forever?]*

FLYING PENNTA, THE --- Japanese film

Julia recorded Melt, Winds Of Fortune, If Only I & Antarctica, for this, an environmental film about the south pole released in mid-1991.

- It has been reported that this was a WWF film made for its centenary (WWF was founded in 1961).

  However, WWF Japan informs me that although the film contains a donation scheme for the WWF; it is a commercial film, and they had nothing to do with the production if it or it's soundtrack. And that the film's production company is now bankrupt.

- The film is distributed by TOHO, in Japan only.

[There are no indications of any (full) soundtrack]

for soundtrack single, see MAIN LISTING: Flying Pennta, The

BUTCHER'S WIFE, THE --- U.S. film

Whilst in LA shooting the video for I Thought It Was You, Julia was phoned up by Virgin America, asking her if she'd like to do (Love Moves In) Mysterious Ways (a song originally to be recorded by Linda Ronstadt), the closing love theme for the film.

*[Now, Mysterious Ways only comes in after "The End", and almost two minutes of credits (and face it, who stays around for those, except for film buffs like me?), and only lasts for 2:08 (I clocked it!)]

"You should see how they operate over there, it's all so, so Hollywood. Everything's so unreal, and money is no problem. All I could think about was that this was a far cry from my Camden council flat!"

[No known soundtrack was released]

for the single release, see MAIN LISTING: Mysterious Ways

TOMMY'S TAPE --- UK only charity tape

UK MC: 20 trk. cassette of which 10.000 copies were made, (26? Sep92) Mentorn
UK MC: re-release w/extended distribution, TOMMY 1 (28 Aug93) Pickwick £3.99
-inc/16 page booklet with lyrics & drawings

The tape was made through a challenge on BBC 1 program Challenge Anneka; which was to - within 72 hours - make 10,000 copies of a charity tape of nursery rhymes and children's songs for the Tommy Campaign. The tape was produced by George Martin and included such artists as Right Said Fred, Beverly Craven, Sonia, Sam Brown, and of course Julia Fordham, with the song The Ugly Duckling.

- Tommy's Campaign is a national charity raising £5 million to fund research into the causes of prematurity, stillbirth and miscarriage.

8. VOCAL CONTRIBUTIONS TO OTHER ARTIST’S RELEASES

As records - and especially singles - so often lack credit of backing vocals, the following releases are meant as a general discography of people Julia has worked with, to enable further research.

Releases known to be backed by Julia are underlined, and unlikely releases are given in (parenthesis).

Julia signed a solo deal with CIRCA Records in July 1987, but before that she’d “paid her dues” singing backing vocals for, and touring with, various artists.

"Since I was a dwarf, I always wanted to be a singer-songwriter, and everything I’d done before was just a means to an end."

"[...] I’ve worked with a lot of very different people. People don’t seem to understand that I didn’t get into this position overnight, with all the things I’ve done I’ve been very, very carefully channeling my own career. I always knew what I wanted to do, it was just a question of having patience, which I haven’t really, and biding my time."

MARI WILSON

1982-85 album & single discography, all titles on Compact Organization:

(Baby It's True ................................. , Apr 82, 7": PINK 3, 12": PINKX 3)
(Just What I've Always Wanted .............. , Aug 82, 7": PINK 4, 12": PINKX 4)
(JUST WHAT I'VE ALWAYS WANTED ... , on CD in 92    : PIP 034)
Beware Boyfriend ............................... , Nov 82, 7": PINK 5, 12": PINKX 5
SHOW PEOPLE ................................. , Feb 83-88, LP: COMP 2 [also on MC]
Cry Me A River ..................................... , Mar 83, 7": PINK 6, 12": PINKX 6
Wonderful ............................................ , May 83, 7": PINK 7, 12": PINKX 7
Ain't That Peculiar ................................. , Apr 84, 7": PINK 8, 12": PINKX 8
Let's Make This Last .............................. , Sep 84, 7": PINK 9, 12": PINKX 9
(Would You Dance With A Stranger ..........., Jun 85, 7": Pink 10)

In 1982, at 19, Julia answered an ad in a music paper after seeing Mari Wilson on TV. Having been accepted, Julia moved to London to join Mari as one half of her backing group, The Wilsations, until they disbanded two years later due to declining sales.

"I vowed to myself that I'd never let myself mumble on about about the backing singer stuff I'd done... but I did a lot of work for Mari Wilson & the Wilsations and I had a lot of splendid times with her."

"It was the perfect introduction, I was meant to do it."

- Mari Wilson have had two UK top 40 singles to date; Just What I Always Wanted peaking at 8th place, and Cry Me A River peaking at 27th place.

KIM WILDE

Neither Julia Fordham nor “Jules” are mentioned in any of the sleevenotes (she may only have done tours).

1982-88 album discography (+ later retrospective collections):

(SELECT .................................................., 1982. UK LP: FAME 413130/RAK 548)
CATCH AS CATCH CAN
(TEASES & DARES ................................., 1984. US LP: MCA 5550)
After the disbandment of The Wilsations, Julia went on to do work for Kim Wilde, which she describes as "great fun".

Two colleagues and friends of Julia, Angie Giles (her former backing singer) & Michael Moran (whom she worked with in 5TA (see above)), teamed up to form a project - sometimes referred to as The Main Thing - fronted by Giles, and with releases under her name.

The team wrote Melt for Julia's Flying Pennta soundtrack (see OTHER PROJECTS), and it may be very possible that she is contributing vocals to their releases.

- They made a cover of Julia's My Lover's Keeper, which was originally meant be be released as a single, but was later included as the B side on their second single Silent Way (and got better reviews than the A side...).

9. ALBUM TRACKS & CREDITS

This section is based on the original UK albums, and is provided for cross-reference & completeness; if you add it and INDEX 2 together, you should come up with all the solo tracks Julia has recorded. 9.2 INDEX 1. ALTERNATE VERSIONS OF ALBUM TRACKS

In stead of trying to list all the tracks of all releases, I have opted for check-lists of tracks not found on regular albums: Variations on album tracks & new tracks not found on albums.

Edit/single versions are shorter, extended versions are - yes - longer, but only tracks described as with new tune and/or vocal (and remixes) are actually different from the album version.

6 live tracks recorded at the Glasgow Pavilion, Scotland 5 Nov88

1. The Other Woman ................................ (6.05)
2. Cocooned .......................................... (4.19)
3. My Mistake ........................................ (2.46) [also listed in INDEX 2!]
4. Few Too Many .................................... (3.33)
5. Invisible War ....................................... (4.13)
6. Behind Closed Doors ............................. (3.29)

These tracks are added on to all formats of the British limited edition JULIA FORDHAM;
they replace their respective studio tracks on the Japanese CD JULIA FORDHAM (VJD-32066); and they are collected on the Japanese CD LIVE (VJD-2501).

11. JULIA, ON HER...

- Childhood:

  "[...] I had a ridiculously low voice, I remember standing next to my father at church carol services, thinking it quite odd that I was singing in the same key as him. Being about eight years old, I wasn't supposed to be doing that. I thought it was quite a talent, but I was never allowed to join the choir.

  "I started writing music at the age of 12, and by 13 I had a very clear picture of what I wanted to do: I wanted to be a singer-songwriter, and that's what I set out to do. [...]"

  "[...] By 14 and 15 I was playing in pubs twice a week and doing jazz things."

- Songwriting:

  "My songs are probably the only place I do wear my heart on my sleeve. For the most part my songwriting is autobiographical. For me to be able to sing a song with feeling, it has to have ring of honesty. The lyrics have to be about something dear to me. That's not to say that I can't sing about things that I didn't write or experience. It's just that given the opportunity, why not go for something I feel comfortable and strongly about?

  "[...] I wish I could be more indifferent to many things - not half as many tears would be shed. It can be very wearing. With my songs though, I am not deliberately trying to nurture an angle, it's just part and parcel of me. The music is really an" extension of myself."

"[...] I can't really write when I'm happy. When I'm happy, I'm more likely to go bicycle riding or swimming than I am to write a song. I write better when I'm down."

- Public:

"[...] I would like them to say 'She does intelligent, well-written, beautifully sung songs' and then I'd go 'Thank you very much'."

- Image (feminist & otherwise):

"Some people get the wrong idea about feminists. I'm not a psychokiller man-hater from hell dressed in a parka, but I am a feminist, yes. I think that the most important thing for me to come out of the Eighties is that each woman should have to right to choose what she wants to do and feel safe in that. Women shouldn't feel guilty whatever choices in life they make."

"When you first start out, you do try to paint a picture of yourself, some sort of image for people to latch on to, I was clearly not a dance act, or the next Madonna, and clearly not heavy metal. So I was tagged a 'feminist'. I suppose I could have been called worse things, a child murderer perhaps?"

"Apart from thinking that sometimes I come across like a prim and proper person, I think I also come across like a cosmonaut... and that's basically because I am one."

Takk og god natt...
