Road safety project - Wamba Memorial Fund

Both Filbert and Dominata went through the manual and made corrections. Elaine will incorporate them. Elaine has put the illustrations together with the Swahili text. We should print and photocopy it for participants.

Elaine and Juma did not go to see Mr Wemba of NIT this week but will go together on Monday.

Mbondole school will send two people to the training – one primary school teacher and (Hatibu Hamisi) one secondary school teacher (Abdallah Kilonda). Ally Saidi Mohammad says he knows a guest house called Mango they can stay in which is self contained and is Tsh 5,000 per night. Kigamboni Secondary School have not yet replied – Elaine will follow up with them. Juma did not go to see HUWATA but will do so this week. So far 14 UWABA members have registered to attend the course.

Andrew replied to say he would like to meet the people we suggested. Juma delivered letters to TANROADS, Dar es Salaam city council and the traffic police and they all said it is fine to visit them on the Thursday.

Juma and Elaine will go to the bank to withdraw enough money for the training of trainers event.

Office

Mejah has not yet painted the logo in the office. We decided to move the notice boards etc after the training of trainers is over.

Finances

During the week Juma spent Tsh 400 on ferry fares, Tsh 1,000 on a sprocket for his bike used for UWABA activities and Tsh 50 on photocopying. Elaine used Tsh 1,500 for printing. He remains with Tsh 65,950 of UWABA money.
