The Arts benefit us all in so many ways that we often take them for granted and fail to acknowledge their importance to our lives. Everything from how we decorate our homes, to what cars we drive and what entertainment we choose are direct benefits of someone's love of the arts.

Our membership levels include:

- ◆ Young Friend, $5 minimum, for ages 18 and below
- ◆ Friend, $25, receive advanced notice of ticket sales and information regarding our upcoming events

Our next event is a one-woman show about three women from Hispanic culture, Tres Vidas, March 9, 2006, 7:30 p.m. at Dorothy I. Summers Theatre. April 22, 2006 will be the debut of Oklahoma Centennial Suite, a musical event in celebration of Oklahoma's Centennial. It was written and scored especially for Oklahoma's Centennial and will also feature music written by Oklahoma musicians.

Your past support has allowed us to bring such events as the OU Symphony Orchestra, Artrain USA, the Moscow Boys Choir and Meisenbach and Golden Flute/Harp Duo. Won't you acknowledge the importance of the arts to your life and community and join the Ada Arts Council as a supporting member in 2006? Your gift will benefit the community by helping us continue to bring quality events to Ada and keeping admission costs nominal.

All members will be on our mailing list to receive information about upcoming events and advanced notice of ticket sales when admission is charged. Members will be given a limited amount of time to purchase tickets before sales are opened to the general public. In addition, all members will receive our quarterly newsletter, The Arts and You.
