

Contents

---

|  |             |
|--|-------------|
| List of Tables  | xiii |
| Book Title Abbreviations                              | xv   |
| Foreword (Sylvan von Berg)                            | xvii |
| Acknowledgements                                      | xix  |
| Introduction: The Democratic Idea                            | 1           |
| 1.1. The Definition of a Sacrosanct Idea                     | 1           |
| 1.2. The Democratic Paradox                                  | 2           |
| 1.3. The Refuge of Democratic Theory                         | 5           |
| 1.4. The Bondage of the Democratic/Non-Democratic Difference | 8           |
| 1.5. The Duality of Oppression in Existential Dialectics     | 12          |
| 1.6. Empirical Evidences and Independent Scholarship         | 15          |
| 1.7. Previous Works and Book Title                           | 17          |
| 1.8. The Structure of the Project                            | 18          |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Chapter 2: Myth #1- Democracy Is More Lawful               | 33  |
| 2.1. In the Spirit of the Law                              | 33  |
| 2.2. The Caprice of Due Process                            | 38  |
| 2.3. The Principle of Necessity                            | 91  |
| 2.4. The Principle of Proportionality                      | 106 |
| 2.5. In the Name of the Law                                | 135 |
|    |     |
| Chapter 3: Myth #2- Democracy Is More Truthful             | 161 |
| 3.1. The Mask of Truth in Life                             | 161 |
| 3.2. The Politics of Campaign Rhetoric                     | 165 |
| 3.3. The Politics of Debased Patriotism                    | 181 |
| 3.4. The Politics of External Threat                       | 192 |
| 3.5. The Politics of Imperial Liberation                   | 228 |
| 3.6. The Condition of Untruth in Life                      | 276 |
|    |     |
| Chapter 4: Myth #3- Democracy Is More Benevolent           | 289 |
| 4.1. The Masquerade of Benevolence                         | 289 |
| 4.2. The Reverse Class Mystique                            | 291 |
| 4.3. The Reverse Black Mystique                            | 301 |
| 4.4. The Humanitarian Mystique                             | 321 |
| 4.5. The Concealment of Malevolence                        | 371 |
|    |     |
| Chapter 5: Myth #4- Democracy Is More Peaceful             | 379 |
| 5.1. The Cloak of Pacificty                                | 379 |
| 5.2. The Polymorphism of Violent Experience                | 384 |
| 5.3. The Oppressive Fad of Emotional Intelligence          | 386 |
| 5.4. The Lasting Appeal of the Far Right for Democracy     | 391 |
| 5.5. The Democratic Axis of Evil                           | 415 |
| 5.6. The Democratic Way of Torture, Brutality, and Revenge | 424 |
| 5.7. The Flesh of Violence                                 | 523 |

|   |         |
|---|---------|
| Chapter 6: Myth #5- Democracy Is More Tolerant                    | 533     |
| 6.1. The Façade of Inclusion                                      | 533     |
| 6.2. The Reverse Feminine Mystique                                | 535     |
| 6.3. New Oppression after Freedom                                 | 559     |
| 6.4. The Democratic Autocracy                                     | 577     |
| 6.5. The Dialectics Between Civilization and Individual Terrorism | 600     |
| 6.6. The Subterfuge of Exclusion                                  | 621     |
| Conclusion: The Democratic Mystique                               | 629     |
| 7.1. The Gospel of One Era, and the Superstition for Another      | 629     |
| 7.2. Post-Democracy Unto the Coming Post-Human Age                | 631     |
| 7.3. Like Non-Democracy, Like Democracy                           | 635     |
| Bibliography   | 661     |
| Index  | 727-861 |

List of Tables

---

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Table 1.1. The Varieties of Democratic Thought: From Before to Beyond            | 20  |
| Table 1.2. No Equality Without Inequality  | 21  |
| Table 1.3. No Freedom Without Unfreedom  | 23  |
| Table 1.4. No Right Without Unfreedom  | 25  |
| Table 1.5. The Structure of Existential Dialectics   | 27  |
| Table 1.6. The Democratic Mystique in the Freedom/Unfreedom and Equality/Inequality Dialectics | 28  |
| Table 1.7. The Duality of Oppression in Existential Dialectics                                 | 29  |
| Table 1.8. Democracy, Non-Democracy, and Post-Democracy  | 31  |
| Table 2.1. The Theoretical Debate on the Rule of Law   | 142 |
| Table 2.2. Two Principles of International Law   | 143 |
| Table 2.3. The Caprice of Due Process  | 144 |
| Table 2.4. Different Techniques of Legal-Formalistic Ruthlessness                              | 145 |
| Table 2.5. Different Democratic Violations of International Law                                | 153 |
| Table 3.1. The Theoretical Debate on the Nature of Truth                                       | 284 |
| Table 3.2. Democratic Deception in Action  | 285 |
| Table 3.3. The Limits of Deliberate Thinking   | 286 |
| Table 3.4. Two Types of Patriotism   | 287 |
| Table 4.1. The Theoretical Debate on the Need of Benevolence                                   | 375 |
| Table 4.2. The Reverse Minority Mystique   | 376 |
| Table 4.3. The Humanitarian Mystique   | 377 |
| Table 4.4. Systematic Economic Exploitation in Action  | 378 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Table 5.1. The Theoretical Debate on Democratic Peace  | 526 |
| Table 5.2. The Polymorphism of Violent Experience  | 527 |
| Table 5.3. The Oppressive Fad of Emotional Intelligence  | 528 |
| Table 5.4. The Lasting Appeal of the Far Right for Democracy   | 529 |
| Table 5.5. The Democratic Way of Torture, Brutality, and Revenge                                     | 530 |
| Table 6.1. The Theoretical Debate on Tolerance   | 624 |
| Table 6.2. The Democratic Autocracy  | 625 |
| Table 6.3. The Dialectics between Civilization and Individual Terrorism                              | 626 |
| Table 7.1. The Trinity of Modernity  | 643 |
| Table 7.2. The Trinity of Postmodernity  | 645 |
| Table 7.3. The Trinity of After-Postmodernity  | 647 |
| Table 7.4. Civilizations from Pre-Modernity to After-Postmodernity                                   | 648 |
| Table 7.5. Post-Democracy I: The Priority of Freedom over Equality                                   | 651 |
| Table 7.6. Post-Democracy II: The Priority of Equality over Freedom                                  | 652 |
| Table 7.7. Post-Democracy III: The Transcendence of Freedom and Equality (in Floating Consciousness) | 653 |
| Table 7.8. Capitalist Value Ideals   | 654 |
| Table 7.9. Post-Capitalism I: A Trans-Feminine Calling   | 655 |
| Table 7.10. Post-Capitalism II: A Trans-Sinitic Calling  | 656 |
| Table 7.11. Post-Capitalism III: A Trans-Islamic Calling   | 657 |
| Table 7.12. Post-Capitalism IV: A Trans-Outerspace Calling   | 658 |

Book Title Abbreviations

---

FPHC = Peter Baofu. 2004. The Future of Post-Human Consciousness.
NY: The Edwin Mellen Press.

FCD = Peter Baofu. 2002. The Future of Capitalism and Democracy
MD: The University Press of America.

FHC = Peter Baofu. 2000. 2 volumes. The Future of Human Civilization.
NY: The Edwin Mellen Press.