

Run Number: 2nd in the year of 2007
Run date: 11th January 2007
Hare: Just-a-Turd [with supposedly some 50 meters of trail laid by Queen Fred]
Location: BSD exit, Puspitek Estate

There were several faces not seen on BH4 for a loooong time, which meant there was a lot of hand shaking and chitchatting going on, as the pack size grew in the leadup to the start. Faces like CockneyWanker, QueenFred, Chocko and RonPate [Ron hasn't been seen on this hash since the 1,000th run].

This was a point-to-point run so the run that could have ended anywhere in this wilderness.....it hadn't rained in Jakarta for some 3 weeks, so it was hot, effin hot, effin dry, and gaping cracks were everywhere.....unfortunately these were not the kind of cracks you would like to fall into. The hare warned the pack – STAY ON PAPER !!!!

Cracks you shouldn't fall into:

Cracks you could easily fall into:

The pack headed off on asphalt, down the long winding drop to the river, and across the sawa2. This clever start quickly drew the pack out into a long thin line of runners. The first checks were well laid and gathered the pack together again, one along a water pipeline quickly followed by another way up a steep climb. This part of the run was beautiful and without cracks....the kind of country where you would like to find a tight little crack.... After breaking these check the pack then caught up with Sukapussey, the lone rider on the run, who led us up and out of the green river bank area, up onto high dry ground. This is where the run turned into the runners run...Fucking Victoria and Sukapussey vanished into thin air, which meant the two remaining champion runners RubHurTurd and CowCunt were left to lead the pack home. The final stretch dropped down into a large quarry followed by a climb upto and thru a narrow hole-in-the-wall into the circle....what a surprise – we were only some 100 meters from the start point.

GM kicked off the circle and quickly handed it over to SimpleSemen for 10 minutes....SimpleSemen dragged in Queen Fred and RubHurTurd and then challenged runners with “what did they have in common ??”. This was obviously a trick question because these two bastards had absolutely nothing in common. Several DDs were dished out to wrong answers. JustATurds answer was jewelry and he got a DD for having the diamond stud from George Michael’s foreskin stuck in his teeth....

HASH CASH: Returners: FuckingShirley, PomPom, SlipperyArse, QueenFred, ShittingBull, CockneyWanker, RexBridges, Gary Thorpe [2 timer], and Ron Pate [no hash name but has run plenty of hashes in the distant past – so much for good record keeping]. Hash cash also identified several interesting numbers: 456=RubHurTurd, 292=SlipperyArse, 33=PuckOff, 808=ShipsKin, 114=JustATurd, 350=Muffhead.

69 REPORT delivered by CockneyWanker: RubHurTurd says he doesn’t like the 69 because its to close to the exhaust pipe, Poof advises Bush is sending 3 x 6900 troops to Iraq so drinks DD with SukaPussey, WhoreMoan advises several runners are close to multiple 69s [ShipsKin, MuffHed, Sukapussey, SlipperyArse, RubHurTurd, CowCunt, JustATurd] so they all get a DD, JustTurd advises only 69 Brits have been killed in Iraq so far – by US forces, SukaPussey reveals FukingShirly has been gone for 69 days and had the nerve to ask him “where hell have you been!!!”, Arsenal loose 9 goals in 6 days so ScouseGit gets the 69....ScouseGit takes his time, savouring every molecule, and doesn’t spill a single drop – excellent drinking.

DOWN-DOWN and a moments silence in memory of BROWN EYE who sadly passed away. For those who didn’t know him,....I did...he was the nicest guy you’d ever want to meet, and the only gentleman bastard to have ever hashed with the bastards from BH4.

RUN DISCUSSION delivered by WitlessWanker: Responses included: GR8 walking country, Good, Excellent, Competative, late start so I couldn’t say it was a Shiite run [by Gary Glitter - the 2 timer]. Verdict – a fcking good run.

OnOn at Becakcafe attended by some 9 hashers.
