2008 CUHSA Herb Education Day

Herbs of the Orient

A cultural history lesson is shared by CUHSA members demonstrating how Asian herbs have been used in traditional medicine, culinary and spiritual uses.

The Chattahoochee Unit of the Herb Society of America will host its annual Herb Education Day at the Atlanta Botanical Garden on Saturday, October 11, 2008 from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

--- Herbs and Spices from the Orient - The people of Asian have used herbs and spices for centuries as part of their culture, changing the world with their traditions. This herbal history will take you through a journey of tea tastings, mixing Chinese five-spices, and learning about the Chinese Ginkgo shade tree and more. Enjoy your herbal journey to the Orient. An Asian themed luncheon and a delightful dessert buffet will be served. The marketplace and silent auction will give everyone an opportunity to explore new tastes and ideas. Reservations are required; $45 (plus the cost of garden admission.)
