Assunto: Your feedback

Dear Paul,

I want to thank you for taking the time to send me your thoughts about our campaign in response to my email the other day. I was really gratified that so many of Hillary's supporters were willing to share their ideas, advice, and words of encouragement.

Here are just a few examples of the great submissions I received:

Don't give up! I have been pulling a grass roots movement in NC for Hillary and there are many of us whose voice will be heard the day of the election, May 6th. Don't believe the polls -- I have faith that the middle-class American from the small town USA will pull her through.

Hillary, I'm proud of you and I believe in you. You've overcome hostile press coverage, and you're by far the best candidate in the race, and you'll make a fine president. Please hang in there and give all of us who are rooting for you a chance to vote for you again. You are the one I trust. You are the one who knows how politics work, and how to beat the odds. Don't let me down.

I think we should stress and publicize that any outcome without Florida and Michigan is incomplete, unfair, and unacceptable.

By the way, I've also shared some of the email responses with Hillary. She is extremely appreciative of the good suggestions people offered, and she was touched by the many kind words of support so many people sent in.

Please keep the your advice coming, and please forward this email to your friends and ask them to do the same.

Thank you again for your feedback and everything you do to drive our campaign to victory. You know as well as I do that we are at a crucial point in the campaign, so all of your help is very much welcomed and always appreciated.

Sincerely,
Geoff Garin
