No. 5.

Moderately

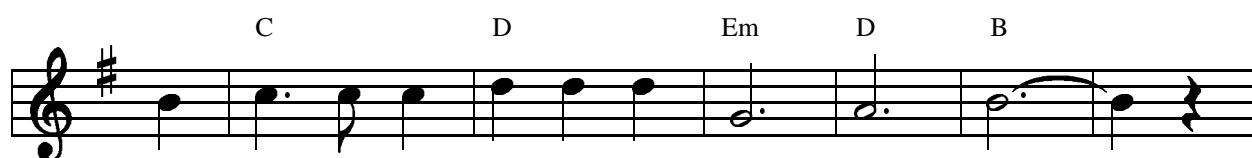

1. As I was a - walk - ing one morn - ing by chance,
2. I said "My fair maid, pray whence have you strayed?
3. When I was e - lev - en I had sweet - hearts seven,
4. Oh! Come back from sea, my dear John - ny to me,

I heard a maid mak - ing her moan.
 And are you some dist - ance from home?"
 And then I would look up - on none;
 And make me a bride of your own!

I asked why she sighed, and she sad - ly re - plied
 "My home," re - plied she "is a burd - en to me,
 But now all in vain I must sigh and com - plain,
 Or else for your sake my poor heart it will break,

"A - las I must live all a - lone, a - lone,
 For there I must live all a - lone, a - lone,
 For my true love has left me a - lone, a - lone,
 And here I will die all a - lone, a - lone,

A - las! I must live all a - lone."
 For there I must live all a - lone!"
 For my true love has left me a - lone."
 And here I shall die all a - lone!"
