

Robin Hood and the Bishop of Hereford

1. Oth - ers they may tell you of bold Ro - bin Hood. Der-ry, derry down!
2. Rob - in Hood, he dressed him in shep - herd's att - ire,
3. "We are but poor shep - erds," quoth bold Rob - in Hood,
4. "Thou'rt a merr - y fell - ow," the old Bish - op said.

Or else of the ba - rons bold, But I'll tell you how they served the Bish - op,
And six of his men al - so, and when the Bish - op he did come by,
"And keep sheep all the year. But we've re - sol - ved to taste to - day
"The King of they deeds shall know; There - fore make haste, come a - long with me,

When they robbed him of his gold. Der - ry down Hey! Der - ry, der - ry, down!
They ar - ound the fire did go.
Of the best of our King's deer."
For be - fore the King shalt thou go."
