

Understand the Game Campaign

Internship Application

The Detlef Schrempf Foundation and its Understand the Game campaign will award four internships to aspiring Malaysian coaches. Interns will travel to the United States in July 2005 to work for four weeks at the United States Basketball Academy and assist in administering basketball camps. Applicants must be Malaysian citizens. Applications will be evaluated based on their athletic/coaching achievement, scholastic achievement, community and cultural involvement, and an essay. In addition to working at the US Basketball Academy, the awardees will be awarded travel accommodations to the United States, and room & board.

Instructions
