ACTIVITY 3: WRITING A LETTER TO THE OWNER OF "GOODTYRE" FACTORY.

NAME: 1)……
2)……..

IN THE LAB – session 1

You are a member of GREENPEACE and you live near the "GOODTYRE" factory, that produces tyres for cars and other vehicles. One day, as you were walking by the lake nearby the factory, you notice dead fish floating on the surface of the water and the colour of the water having turned into a black-green gelly liquid. You are extremely worried not only about the life of the animals in this lake but also about your life and the life of those leaving in the area, so you decide to write a letter to the factory owner, Mrs. Brown, including the following:

- Inform her about the water pollution the factory causes to the area, and the consequences this pollution will have on the lives of both the inhabitants and the animals and plants of the area,
- Complain in a polite way about the situation,
- Make a few suggestions about what everybody could do to help.

Mrs. Brown hates long letters, so your letter must be between 100 – 200 words.

You can visit this address, if you wish, to help you:

IN THE LAB – session 2

Now take a look at the notes you noted down the previous time and write a letter to Mrs. Brown, the owner of "GOODTYRE" factory. In your letter, don't forget to include the following:

- Inform her about the water pollution the factory causes to the area, and the consequences this pollution will have on the lives of both the inhabitants and the animals and plants of the area,
- Complain in a polite way about the situation,
- Make a few suggestions about what everybody could do to help.

Do not forget: Mrs. Brown hates long letters, so your letter must be between 100 – 200 words.
