HONG KONG CERTIFICATE OF EDUCATION EXAMINATION 2002

ENGLISH LANGUAGE (SYLLABUS B) PAPER 1

8.30 am – 9.40 am (1 hour 10 minutes)

Write about 300 words on ONE of the topics.

Write your composition in the answer book provided.

Do not use your real name in answering any of the questions. If names are provided in the question, you must use those names. If no name is provided and you still wish to use a name to identify yourself, then use 'Chris Wong'. If you need to use names for other characters in the composition, you may use names such as Mary, Peter, Wai Yee, Mr Smith, Ms Young, etc. You may lose marks if you do not follow these instructions.

You are reminded of the importance of clear handwriting and the need for planning and proofreading.

Do not turn over this page until you are told to do so.

1. You have recently read a newspaper article about a government plan to spend millions of dollars on Artificial Intelligence (AI) technology. The money will be used to develop computerized buildings and vehicles, and robots which ‘think’ like humans and may even have emotions. You feel strongly about this technology and decide to write a letter to the editor of the newspaper explaining your views. You should say what you think might happen in the future as a result of developing AI technology.

Sign your letter C. Wong. Do not write an address.

2. The Hong Kong Police Force would like to improve its public image in Hong Kong. It has asked young people to make suggestions about what events or activities could be organized to help the public learn more about the work of the Police Force.

Write an article for your school magazine outlining your suggestions.

3. You are Chris Wong. Your best friend Pat has been dating a schoolmate called Sandy for several months. Pat is really happy and has even talked about marrying Sandy when they are old enough. Unfortunately, you think you have also fallen in love with Sandy. One day at school you find a note hidden in your desk. The note is shown below:

Dear Chris,

There's a party at the weekend and I really want to go with you. How about it? Let me know.

Sandy

Write a reply to Sandy explaining your feelings and saying what you think both of you should do about the situation.
