

RIVERWALK

downtown Fort Lauderdale's arts & entertainment district

www.riverwalk-ae.com

Funding for this event is provided in part by the Broward County Board of County Commissioners as recommended by the Broward Cultural Council and the Greater Fort Lauderdale Convention & Visitors Bureau.

Featured Events

Tuesday, May 4, 2004 to Sunday, May 23, 2004

THE PRODUCERS

The hit musical by MEL BROOKS is the story of down-on-his-luck theatrical producer Max Bialystock and Leo Bloom, a mousy accountant. They scheme to scam money for their new musical flop, Springtime for Hitler. THE PRODUCERS, has set a record, receiving 12 American Theatre Wing Tony Awards, more than any other production in the history of the awards. Broward Center, Au-Rene Theater

Saturday, May 1, 2004 to June 27, 2004

ANSEL ADAMS: CELEBRATION OF GENIUS

In celebration of Ansel Adams 100th birthday, George Eastman House has put together an exhibition of one hundred and fifty photographs by this revered American photographer. Ansel Adams: Celebration of Genius is a retrospective, which spans his career from the 1920's to the 1960's, showcasing images of the America West as well as portraits, still lifes, and abstracts. • Museum of Art

Tuesday, May 4, 2004

SISSEL IN CONCERT

Scandinavian Singer/Songstress Sissel magnetic voice captivated the world as the backdrop to the mega-hit movie Titanic. Her South Florida performance includes theme music from the film, original songs, operatic arias, and much more, highlight the versatility of Sissel's alluring voice. • Broward Center, Amarturo Theater

Through Monday, May 31, 2004

SPACE STATION (3D)

Experience the feeling of life in zero gravity with this new IMAX film narrated by Tom Cruise. Share the excitement of space travel on this journey to the International Space Station. • Museum of Discovery and Science

Through Monday, May 31, 2004

AN HISTORIC HOME

Tour this historic trading post, play a pioneer game and join in literature circles by the New River. Experience a link to the time when the Seminole Indians made friends with a young Ohioan who came to the frontier settlement now known as Fort Lauderdale. Imagine young Frank Stranahan winning the hand of Ivy Cromartie and building her a home so charming it serves today as a unique museum. A "must see" in South Florida • Stranahan House

May 4 @ 7:00 PM-8:00 PM

BOOKS BY THE RIVER

"Extraordinary Interpretations: Florida's Self-Taught Artists" and "Highwaymen: Florida's African-American Landscape Painters," with author Gary Monroe. New River Inn Old Fort Lauderdale Village and Museum

Wednesday-Saturday
every week
10 AM-3 PM, on the hour

HISTORIC TOURS OF PIONEER LIVING

Stranahan House

Through Spring

MUSEUM OF ART OF FORT LAUDERDALE

Don't miss these great exhibits:

TONY MENDOZA: CATS & DOGS

See the world from your pet's point of view.

STEVEN SCOTT YOUNG: WATERCOLORS

Colorful portrayal of life in the Caribbean.

There's always something going on!

For tickets and information, see our website:
www.riverwalk-ae.com or call 954-468-2540

