

For Immediate Release
Friday, September 7, 2007

SpookyFests@gmail.com

COUNT GORE RETURNS TO HOST THE OPENING NIGHT “GRINDHOUSE-THEMED” DOUBLE FEATURE AT THE 2007 SPOOKY MOVIE FILM FESTIVAL

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 2007 | FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA

THE 2007 SPOOKY MOVIE FILM FESTIVAL announces the opening night double feature, kicking off a total of twenty-five independent feature films and shorts that will screen over the course of the weekend - October 12 - 14, 2007.

Opening Night, Friday, October 12, Cinema Arts Theatre will be Northern Virginia's habitat for vampires, werewolves and cannibals, beginning with the feature EAT YOUR HEART OUT (pictured). At midnight, the "grindhouse" feel of the evening continues with the film "BLOOD BOUND." Both new, independent movies will be preceded by shorts, and for a second year in a row, the entire evening is made possible by sponsorship by Virginia Barbecue of Manassas, Virginia.

THE SPOOKY MOVIE FILM FESTIVAL is once again honored to have regional superstar "Count Gore De Vol" host the opening night double feature - especially considering that this month will mark his 35th Anniversary as a Washington D.C. icon.

"I expect to see things never before scene on a movie screen!" The Count said, with regards to his return engagement.

In addition to "Count Gore," alter-ego, Dick Dyszel, entertained and educated a generation of fans in the 1970s and 1980s through his popular characters "Bozo The Clown," and "Captain 20" on WDCA Channel 20 in Washington, D.C. "Count Gore" remains one of the more sought after guests at nostalgia and memorabilia conventions, is even the subject of two upcoming documentaries on the subjects of horror hosting and local television, and is the generous host of his weekly web program, "Creature Feature" (www.countgore.com), which begins its tenth year in 2008.

"Opening THE SPOOKY MOVIE FILM FESTIVAL is the most exciting thing to ever happen to me," The Count teased: "Right after biting Marilyn Chambers, Dee Wallace, Brinke Stevens and a few others!"

Introducing The Count will be one of the legion of artists he has influenced over the years- "Karlos Borloff," the host of "Monster Madhouse Live," seen locally on FCCTV in Fairfax County and Falls Church on Cox Channel 12 on Starpower Channel 2, all of Northern Virginia on Verizon's Fios service Channel 35, and (following The Count's lead) all over the world live on the internet on show nights.

Presented by Movie Madness Productions, THE SPOOKY MOVIE FILM FESTIVAL will be held at Cinema Arts Theatre at Fair City Mall in Fairfax, Virginia (www.cinemaartstheatre.com) Friday, October 12 - Sunday, October 14. The best horror, sci-fi, fantasy, independent and underground films from around will come together to give Washingtonians something to scream about this season! Admission is $8.00 per screening; $10.00 for our opening night double-feature; and $20.00 for a weekend festival pass, available at the box office. For more updates on THE 2007 SPOOKY MOVIE FILM FESTIVAL, please visit our website: www.thespookymovie.com.