

Using a Chaos Dwarfs Army in Great Lakes Warhammer League (GLWL) Events

Rulings Effective March 22, 2007

With the release of Warhammer 7th edition, questions have arisen regarding the status of the Chaos Dwarfs army list in GLWL Events. For those unfamiliar with the Chaos Dwarfs their most recent army list was released at the beginning of Warhammer 6th edition in the Ravening Hordes booklet and is now available via .pdf download from the Games Workshop UK site <http://uk.games-workshop.com/warhammer/chaos-dwarfs/1/>

While we recognize that many of the GLWL members have invested time and money into building Chaos Dwarfs armies, there are some problems with the army list which are widely accepted by veteran gamers as needing to be corrected.

We will continue to allow Chaos Dwarfs armies to be fielded in GLWL events but are using our "Organizer Discretion" to place additional restrictions (via the amendments below) on the army list and to issue necessary clarifications.

Amendments

- 1) If a Chaos Dwarf Lord or Chaos Dwarf Sorcerer Lord is fielded he MUST be the General of the Chaos Dwarf army.
- 2) The Earthshaker is a 0-1 Rare choice.

Clarifications

- 1) The Direwolf FAQ for Chaos Dwarfs is considered "official rules" for GLWL Events. You may download the Direwolf FAQ for the Chaos Dwarfs army at: http://www.geocities.com/mi_whplayers/7th_faqs/cd_faq.txt