

The Weekly Buzz

Ms. Dillard's Class
March 24, 2009

We have been busy, busy, BUSY in Kindergarten! Last week, we celebrated reaching our February Star Citizen goal by playing board games from our home! On Saint Patrick's Day, we all wore the color green. The sneaky leprechaun came into our room while we were at special and made a big mess in our room. He left us a pot of green coins and magical green glitter at all of our tables (along with his green footprints). John was helper of the WHOLE day on Monday and Tony was helper on Tuesday. They earned and saved 20 Dillard Dollars to be helper. Way to go! Julia is our helper of the whole day today! We are looking forward to celebrating Tony's birthday on Friday! As you can see, we have been busy bees!

Have a fabulous Monday!
Ms. Megan Dillard
