- I. Create a storyboard of Roman history beginning with the Latins settling at the Tiber River in 1200 BCE and ending with the fall of Rome. For each box, draw a symbol of an important event in Roman history and write a caption/ description for each event.

- II. Myth of Rome: In the myth, how was Rome created? Describe the story in the space below.

- III. Describe the story of Lucretia and the rebellion in 509 BCE. What does this story tell you about Roman values?

IV. Cicero—The belief in Law and the Republic. What was Cicero’s view of the Law? Where did the Law come from? Why was Law important?

V. The Hierarchy of Roman Culture. Describe the hierarchy of Roman society and the Roman family. Who was on top? What were his rights? (Pater-Familias)

VI. Caesar’s Assassination: In the table below, give reasons why the Senators (like Cicero) wanted to assassinate Caesar and reasons why people like Octavian (Augustus) and Dio Cassius thought it was wrong.

For the Assassination of Julius Caesar	Against the Assassination of Julius Caesar

VII. Rome Under Julius Caesar, Augustus, Diocletian, and Constantine: Using your notes, describe the accomplishments of each Emperor and what Rome was like while each was in power.

Leader/ Emperor	When in Power	What did they do for Rome? What were their problems?
Julius Caesar	49 BCE-44 BCE
Augustus	27 BCE-14 CE
Diocletian
Constantine

VIII. Mapping Rome: Using your notes, describe what the different maps of Rome tell you about the Roman Empire. Consider the following topics:

1. Trade Routes and Resources:

2. Population Density and Roads

3. Changing Boundaries of Rome:

4. Barbarians:
