Our Goals

- ≈ To pursue the enjoyment and preservation of the hammered dulcimer, mountain dulcimer, and autoharp as well as other acoustic instruments.
- ≈ To provide a safe venue for players of all levels of expertise to learn new tunes and develop playing skills
- ≈ To promote opportunities to perform beyond the scheduled club meetings.
- ≈ To foster community appreciation and awareness of our instruments.
- ≈ To jam together and enjoy one another's company.

The Prairie Dulcimer Club

History:

An organizational meeting held on March 27, 1977, heralded the beginning of The Prairie Dulcimer Club, founded by Lilah Gillett and Harvey Prinz. Ours is a chapter of the Original Dulcimer Player's Club started in Michigan by Elgia C. Hickok, Lilah Gillett's father.

The Prairie Dulcimer Club has grown in numbers and prestige since those early days. Many members play regularly for the public in schools, retirement centers, nursing homes, churches, historic sites, and other venues where folks gather to listen. Several members have become renowned dulcimer teachers, both locally and nationally. And..... If you've heard a dulcimer being played in the Kansas City area, chances are that the artist is a member of The Prairie Dulcimer Club.
