

NMYSA HOSTS A NATIONAL COACHING COURSE

From August 18 – 25, the NMYSA hosted a National 'C' License at the Manzano Mountain Retreat. 38 coaches from around New Mexico, and around the country, participated in this event. Coaches received instruction in the classroom and on the field, had opportunities to conduct practice sessions for critique, and completed written, oral, and field tests. Congratulations to all these coaches who took the time to attend this course.

Candidates:

Daniel Granados; Josh Groves; Robert Tarin; Chris Anderson; Joe Barreda; Casey Grange; John Gonzales; Chris Jones; Fred Lechner; Damon Lucero; Beiglar Makvandi; Alfonso Sisneros; Josh Nelson; Gabe Nosseir; Greg Ricketts; Billy Schaefer; Jamie Schock; Ivan Strnad; Joe Tedesco; Jim Tilley; Henrique Valdovinos; Greg Woodhouse; Gary Zink; Sebhath Browne; Michael Corbus; Peter Everett; Steve Famiglietta; Phillip Lee; Rob Newell; Jeanne Hirschman; Amy Litteral; Matt Melancon; Steve Morgan; Nik Penn; Jenny Overstreet; Chris Rigali; Caron Scates; Knight Seavy

Course Instructors:

Mike Haas (US Soccer); Jay Entlich (US Soccer); Greg Maas (Utah DoC); Bob Bigney (NM DoC)

US Soccer National Staff Coach Mike Haas (green vest) provides instruction as Jim Tilley looks on.

Sibby Browne (left) is presented with the Bob McNulty award. Making the presentation is Jay Entlich, a National Staff Coach from US Soccer.

ADDITIONAL PHOTOS FROM THE 'C' COURSE

Rob Newell, a candidate from Albuquerque, studies his notes before his field test.

Greg Maas, one of the course instructors and the Director of Coaching for the Utah Youth Soccer Association, addresses the group of coaches.