

Coco-Nut Monkey Heads

I had a Coco-Nut
Shaped like a Monkey Head
A Coco-Nut Monkey Head
Kept it on a shelf
Right up by my bed
My Coco-Nut Monkey Head

Late at night
He would talk to me
This is what he said...

“Well there are many things I could tell you
But here are some words you should live by:
When in trouble or in doubt
Run in circles SCREAM AND SHOUT!”

I didn't listen to my Monkey Head
Thought that I knew best
He tried to guide my way
This is what he'd say...

“Well there are many things I could tell you
But you won't understand
Until you become a Master from Case
When in trouble or in doubt

Coco-Nut Monkey Heads

Then he was gone one day
Left without a trace
Why, he didn't say
But I knew he's been busy since then

Telling who would listen
All I have left
Is these words
He left engraved in my brain

Beati illi qui in circulum circumeunt
Flient enim magnae rotae

{CHORUS}

Coco-Nut Coco-Nut
Monkey Head
Passing lots of time
Until your dead
