I always will remember the way my grandma laughed because I used to think it was so funny because she had no teeth. The way she would laugh when I would try to get her in and out of my car. I remember when she cried tears of joy on her birthday two years ago when she got to see alot of her grand kids and great grand kids and great great grand kids. She was so happy. I wish I could of been able to tell her how much I loved her one more time.

I'll never forget laughing when she would chase her dog Shurtai around the house and whip him with the stick. It was hilarious. Her cooking milk in the morning for us to drink.

The way she would chase the tamale guy down the road.

Well guess what what grandma I had a daughter Sophia on 3/10/05 so now you don't have to ask when I'm gonna have kids. So I just wanted to tell you that I love you with all my heart and you will always be in my heart.
