

Spain is famous for its historical sites which go all the way from prehistorical locations such as the Altamira Caves in Santander to the ultramodern titanium structure of the Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao.

Cities with famous cathedrals such as Barcelona

Or the Toledo Cathedral

The Alhambra in Granada, the magnificent castle of the Arab heritage in southern Spain

Cordoba's Mosque another example of the Muslim times

Spain has important museums like the Prado Museum in Madrid, visited by hundreds of tourists every year

The Dalí Museum, is very famous as well

In its vineyards Spain produces some of the best delicious wines in the world

Wine and olive oil.
Experts say that Spanish virgin olive oil is the best in the world.

Hundreds of tourists come to Spain all the year round because of its wonderful beaches

Who has never tried the delicious Spanish ham?
Gorgeous!

What about the seafood paella,
the tortilla or the Asturian fababa ?

Some Spanish people are famous not only in our country. Do you know who are these handsome men?

And these ones?

And these are...

You see... Spain is not just bullfighting

...flamenco dance and fiesta and 20 minutes
of “siesta” after lunch.
Spain is much more than this. For sure!
