Autumn calls
With a cool breeze
And coloured leaves

Summer's garden
Is now done.
Sleep pretty flowers
Till springtime comes.

Goldenrod.
Queen Anne's Lace.
Purple Thistle.
Surround my space!

The herbs have all been gathered
and hung up to dry.
The pumpkins have all been picked
and made into pies.

The Mighty Oak
Lays down his leaves
Winter whispers sleep
In a sharp autumn breeze

The Goddess loves me
This I know
'Cause everywhere I look
She shows me so

Herne awakes
After summer's heat.
The Hunt begins
To the drummer's beat.

Lemon peels and mint
Simmering in a pot
Soothes the sore throats
That the cool winds brought.

The Lord and Lady
Hand in hand
Bless us all
Across the land
