

Supwat Jearkpaporn

Objective	A position in construction management which would effectively use my education and experiences, computer expertise, and background in civil engineering while providing opportunities in the career advancement.
Education	1999 – present	Texas A&M University	College Station, TX
	Construction Management Program, College of Architecture
	▪ Currently study in first semester
	1994 – 1998	Kasetsart University	Bangkok, Thailand
	Civil Engineering Program, Faculty of Engineering
	▪ Awarded a Bachelor of Civil Engineering (B.CE.) in Mach 1998
Professional experience	1998 – 1999	V.S.P. Construction Co. Ltd.	Bangkok, Thailand
	Project Engineer
	▪ Rehabilitation 4 stories building project at the Thammasart University, Bangkok Thailand
	▪ Rehabilitation Main Gymnasium at the Thammasart University, Bangkok Thailand
	1997 – 1998	Prefab Inc.	Bangkok, Thailand
	Intern Engineer
	▪ Assisted the Project Manager to supervise the construction using Pre-Fabricated Concrete Technology
Professional memberships	Licensed Engineer
Extracurricular activities	• May 1998 to February 1999: Attended in “Programmer Professional Development” courses specialized in Visual Basic Programming.
	• February 1999 to May 1999: Attended in “Assembly computer parts” courses
Computer Proficiency	Programming Language
	▪ Visual Basic in Depth (Database programming by using Jet Engine, DAO, ADO and SQL, Active X Control)
	▪ HTML, VB Script, Adobe Photoshop, Macromedia Dreamweaver, Macromedia Flash.
	Business Applications
	▪ MS. Office (Word, Excel, Power Point, Access)
	▪ Lotus

