

Employment characteristics of Fung Ting

Fung Ting - Born: 14 March 1976 Gender: Female Lunar Birth Date: 14 2 1976 (day/month/year)

The two grids above are called Numerology Grids. The numbers from Fung Ting's birth date - her Gregorian calendar birth numbers - are inserted into the Western Grid in certain positions. Her birth date is then converted into the Chinese lunar calendar, and the equivalent Lunar birth date numbers are inserted into the Chinese Grid, but in different positions. In this way the Chinese and Western numerological interpretations complement each other.

Character, personality and employment characteristics are gleaned from the position of those numbers in each grid, the quantity of each number, and the lack of numbers. Comments on each number (or sets of numbers) are recorded below. Green arrows represent positive characteristics derived from having three numbers in a row (horizontal, vertical or diagonal), whilst red arrows represent somewhat negative characteristics derived from three blanks in a row. Be aware that to read numerology grids accurately takes a lot of practice, and before acting on what you see here you should study the whole subject in much greater detail. Nor should you disregard the profound influence of genetics and upbringing.

Ki System

Natal Year number: 6

With a strong sense of responsibility for her family and close friends, Fung Ting has a tendency to blame herself if anything should go wrong, even if it is clearly not her fault. She will work long and hard - perhaps too hard for her own good - and unless she is careful her life may lack the fun, humour and social activity that would force her to be more outward looking. This in turn makes her careful with money in the sense that she will apply funds only to those things that are of the utmost importance to her. She holds strong views from which she will not easily be moved.

Natal Month number: 4

Ambitious, and with a constant stream of new ideas, Fung Ting will be an asset to any organisation provided that she has someone else to take care of the detail. Highly personable, Fung Ting has the ability to criticise others without incurring their resentment, yet deserves to be criticised herself for frequent procrastination.

Natal House number: 7

Life is likely to provide Fung Ting with many different challenges, but in the end she will overcome the difficulties and make solid progress. She is prone to talk about subjects on which she has little knowledge, but her communication skills are such that she can be quite persuasive. She needs to focus on her long-term objectives.

Comments based on Western Grid

Fung Ting is a balanced individual who can understand and appreciate the views of others as well as her own. She can express herself fluently, and with persuasive conviction, whilst taking account of opposing views. This means that Fung Ting will get on very well with colleagues at work, both senior and junior, as well as clients, customers, suppliers and external agencies.

With a creative mind and a good memory, Fung Ting is honest, straightforward and optimistic. She will achieve her aims. She is capable of creative thought, and will appreciate art and music. She also enjoys an excellent memory - a significant advantage in any employment.

A practical individual, Fung Ting is a neat and tidy craftsman who can organise others to achieve her plans. She should use those practical skills and organisational ability in an office management, or secretarial function, or by applying such skills to self-employment. In general, Fung Ting is a neat and tidy individual - qualities of value to many different jobs.

Creative yet somewhat insecure, Fung Ting is a family-orientated person who enjoys domestic responsibilities. She could well be employed in the hospitality industry - perhaps running a hotel, or B & B venture. In an office environment Fung Ting will be valuable as the individual to whom others will turn for moral support. But home for Fung Ting is where the heart is, and domestic responsibilities will always be important.

Fung Ting will find life's lessons hard to learn. She will suffer from loss (of possessions or those she loves) before questioning the cause of that loss. It is likely that Fung Ting will develop a faith of some sort, and although it need not necessarily be a religious faith, it will nevertheless be something that she holds onto against all the evidence. Potential employers need to find out what that faith entails.

Ambitious to improve her lot, Fung Ting will constantly push forward to achieve something in her life, yet this ambition will be balanced by humanitarian ideals that will lead her to support causes that may demand self-sacrifice.

[The Arrow of Intellect: the numbers 3, 6 and 9] With a good brain and an excellent memory, Fung Ting is inclined to use her mind at the expense of her emotions. Well-balanced, she will help those around her, even though she tends to look down on those who are not her intellectual equals. Those with the Arrow of Intellect are very employable.

[The Arrow of Emotional Sensitivity: lacking the numbers 2, 5 and 8] Acutely sensitive, Fung Ting is easily hurt and as a consequence has learnt to hide her feelings. Likely to suffer from an inferiority complex, she is very supportive of others who need her help. Consequently Fung Ting is best employed helping others, and in such an environment, she will shine.

[The Arrow of Practicality: the numbers 1, 4 and 7] Good with her hands, Fung Ting is a natural craftsman who will work for as long as it takes to secure a perfect result. Capable and practical, she gets on well with others at all levels of society. If Fung Ting does not pursue a practical trade, it will be important to develop a subsidiary practical interest to complement her main employment.

Comments based on Chinese Grid

Fung Ting will be reasonably successful in financial terms, and enjoy a degree of luck.

Fung Ting has an average mind, and without the numbers 4 and 9 in the Chinese version will not enjoy a creative existence.

Intelligent and logical, Fung Ting is not someone who acts rashly on the spur of the moment.

Fung Ting is family-orientated, and needs a pleasant working environment as well as a comfortable home.

If the numbers 3 and 5 in the Chinese version are missing, Fung Ting is something of a perfectionist who seeks to achieve detailed accuracy, and has a natural instinct to unearth the truth. If the Chinese Grid also contains the numbers 3 and 5, she will be attracted to work in a spiritual or humanitarian field.

Although Fung Ting is ambitious, her ambition is tempered with humanitarian ideals.

[The Arrow of Action: The numbers 2, 6 and 7] Fung Ting has an abundance of energy which is best released in competitive sport. She is also suited to careers such as the Armed Forces, farming, and adventurous activities like rock climbing or mountaineering.

[The Arrow of Intellect: The numbers 2, 4 and 9] Fung Ting is intelligent, articulate and enjoys a first-class memory. She has a logical and analytical approach that suits her to the legal, medical or accountancy professions.
