CHAPTER LEADER'S CORNER

Happy 4th of July to all of you! July is a beautiful month, summer vacations begin, time for families to enjoy each other. July for me is a semi hard month as it is the month that Kevin was born, July 19, 1994. Kevin came in weight 9 lbs 3 oz and 21 ¼ inches long. He arrived at 35 weeks. We waited 7 long years for him and he was the light of our lives. Kevin would be 14 this year and I often wonder what he would be doing if he had lived. I imagine him playing ball as that was his favorite. As July comes I celebrate the life of Kevin and remember the good times we had with him. I hope that you all can remember the good times with your little angels.

This month we also celebrate our country's birthday. We need to remember all those who are fighting for our freedom. Thank you to those of you who have family serving over in Iraq and Afghanistan. We pray for their safe return.

Our meeting will be July 15, 2008 at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 5120 Harrison Road, Fredericksburg, VA in the Fellowship Hall beginning at 7:30 PM. I would like to thank Pastor Koehler for having us at his church.

If you would like to contribute something for the newsletter, deadline is July 20th for the newsletter. Thank you!

Well, I hope that you all have a wonderful month. If you are in need of anything, please call me at 540-775-8430, if there is no answer, please be sure to leave your name and number so I can get back to you or e-mail me at tcffred@yahoo.com.

BIRTHDAY TABLE

Parents bring their child's photos and other mementos to the meeting during the child's birthday month and it can be placed on the table. You may also bring a birthday cake or your child's favorite treat to share with those attending.

LOVE GIFTS

There are no dues or fees to belong to The Compassionate Friends. Just as our chapter is run entirely by volunteers interested in furthering the work of TCF, your voluntary, tax-deductible donations make it possible for us to mail this monthly newsletter, contact newly bereaved parents, continue our participation in TCF/National, and meet other chapter expenses.

Often, as they find hope and healing within the group, parents make a contribution usually in memory of a child who has died, or maybe a gift of thanksgiving for their surviving children.

These contributions are our only source of funds. All proceeds given to the our chapter are used within the community for outreach and to provide a place for newly bereaved fami-

Gifts are tax deductible. If you would like to make a donation, please send to The Compassionate Friends, The Fredericksburg Chapter, P.O. Box 172, King George, VA 22485. All gifts are welcome and truly appreciated.

THANK YOU!

Mrs. Eva Blakley in loving memory of their son Matthew Shane Blakley

Walk to Remember - Friends Asking Friends Program

You can become a unique part of TCF's Walk to Remember® when, in remembrance of a special child, you create an individual, team, or chapter group, support one of our already established teams, or make a general donation to the Walk to Remember. Your participation in this program will help raise funds for use in the support of thousands of bereaved families across the United States and its territories. All the tools you need to join in this special act of remembrance are right here!

First: Click on "Event Enrollment" on the left. Sign up as an individual participant or as a team captain (for families, chapters, or other groups). Or you can join an existing team.

Second: As an individual participant or team captain, you create a personalized web page with pictures and stories, and set a fundraising goal.

Third: Attain your fundraising goal by inviting friends and family to visit your web page and provide support.

Finally: If you can attend and participate in the Walk to Remember being held in Nashville, Tennessee July 20, GREAT!. If you can't, celebrate the difference you are making in the lives of hundreds of thousands of people with your participation in the Walk to Remember through this special "Friends Asking Friends" program. It's that simple.

Thank you to all our walkers, team members, team leaders, and TCF chapters accepting this opportunity through the Walk to Remember "Friends Asking Friends" program to make a difference in the lives of families that have experienced the death of a child.

We cannot achieve our mission without your support! All teams raising funds through this program by July 10 will be represented by name on a banner to be carried during the Walk to Remember in Nashville July 20. Remember, "Together We Can Make a Difference!!"

TCF National Conference for 2008 in Nashville

Nashville City, known as Music City USA, home of country western music, will be the host city for the 31st national conference of The Compassionate Friends July 18-20, 2008.

The conference committee selected the theme Volunteers for Healing—Friends for the Future, a name that is very appropriate as TCF national conferences are always regarded as great healing experiences and a great place to find friends for life. The 2008 conference will have special guest speakers and entertainers, more than 100 workshops covering most aspects of grief following the death of a child, and many additional activities including the ninth annual two-mile Walk to Remember® at 8 a.m. Sunday July, 20. A pre-conference day for professionals and interested bereaved parents, siblings, and grandparents will be Thursday, July 17.

Joe and Iris Lawley, founding parents of The Compassionate Friends, had planned to keynote at the conference, but for health reasons have been forced to cancel their plans to attend the conference on this, the 40th anniversary of the founding of the organization. All of us at TCF wish Joe and Iris a quick return to good health. TCF is pleased to announce that among keynoters at the national conference will be Bruce Murakami, who will share the riveting story of how he has bonded and teamed up, in the name of safety and saving lives, with the drag racing teen who ended the lives of his wife and daughter. Bruce's incredible story has been featured on Oprah, NBC Dateline, The John Walsh Show, The Montel Williams Show, and has been made into a Hallmark Hall of Fame movie Crossroads: A Story of Forgiveness.

Stop back for news on additional keynote speakers.

To allow everyone to be a part of the 2008 conference committee experience, the conference committee plans to decorate the conference area with real 7" vinyl records that have pictures of our TCF children remembered in the center. The "sponsor a record" program is similar to programs available for previous conferences. For a nominal charge (to help defray the cost of the conference), pictures sent in of our TCF children will be placed on the records (which are pressed with real grooves, but will not have music) and will decorate the registration area, and reflection and hospitality rooms.

To participate, download the Sponsor a Record order form and follow the easy instructions. Whether or not you are able to attend the conference, a child, sibling, grandchild, or loved one can still be remembered.

Those who attend the conference and have a record made will be able to carry them home. After the conference concludes, those unable to attend who would like their child's record can have it mailed to them.

The conference will be held at the Sheraton Music City Hotel and a room rate of $124 (plus tax) is now available for guests attending the conference. You can take advantage of this rate by calling 888-627-7060. Please mention that you are with The Compassionate Friends.

You may also register online at Room Registration

As always it is suggested that you register early to avoid disappointment. This rate will be available through June 20, 2008 (or until the room block has been filled). The beautiful Sheraton Music City Hotel, which recently completed a multi-million dollar renovation, is located at 777 McGavock Pike, Nashville, TN. 37214. As always, we suggest you register early to avoid disappointment.

To Our First-Time Readers and New Members and To Our Long-time Members

If you are receiving our newsletter for the first time, it is because someone has told us that you might find it helpful or you asked us to send it to you. We cordially invite you to attend any of our meetings which are held on the third Tuesday of each month at Redeemer Lutheran Church, in the Basement, 5120 Harrison Road, Fredericksburg from 7:00 to 9:00 PM. Nothing is required of you. There are no fees or dues. You need not speak a word. Coming to your first meeting is the hardest thing to do. But you have nothing to lose and everything to gain. If you have never come to a meeting, you are probably wondering what this group of people that you don't even know can do for you. It is here that comfort and support can be given by those that "have been there". We've all had chunks of our hearts torn out. Yet those holes get smaller with the loving touches, friendly smiles and kind reassuring words from each other.

Try not judge your first meeting as to whether or not TCF will work for you. At your first meeting you were hoping that TCF could get you over your terrible pain and depression and loneliness and guilt and anger and all of the other faces of grief. You came expecting to go home, feeling "better, if not cured." Instead you met other parents who are still coping with forms of grief after months or even years. Perhaps you didn't notice there were some parents who were doing "OK." But the bottom line is you may go home from the first meeting feeling worse than when you came. Give it another try you will probably find, that each meeting uncovers a piece of the puzzle of life after the death of a child. It may take several meetings, but, hopefully, you will find the road to recovery like we did.

To Our Long-time Members

"TCF gives me a sense of purpose. A good enough reason for you to consider sticking around a while after you feel you have reached an acceptance or at least worked through your grief. Others need you. Pass the love on—adopt a bereaved parent!"

Fay Harden, TCF - Tuscaloosa, AL

CAN YOU HELP? Do you remember your first meeting of The Compassionate Friends, those first months of your grief journey? You desperately needed someone to talk to, someone who knew the pain of losing a child, someone to hug you, cry with you, listen to you. And there are newly bereaved parents who now need your help. Are you willing to be there for them? If two years or more have passed since the death of your child, and you feel that you are ready to give back some of the support that was shown to you, please consider a place of service in our chapter. There is a job for everyone. Don't wait call me at 540-775-8430. If you can't serve, please, at least, come to meetings to lend your support and understanding to our newly bereaved families. We have had so many new members join us the past few months. We need all the help we can get to help them. Thank you from all of our children.

ANOTHER BIRTHDAY MISSED

By: Traci Morlock
BP/USA Bereaved Sibling
St. Louis, MO

November 11, 1974, Sean Christian Anderson was born. I remember helping my mom take care of that little bitty baby. He was so cute. I was four years old when my baby brother was born. I remember being jealous of him, but also the wonderful feeling of being a big sister. Through the years, we had our disagreements. When birthdays came though, we always got along. My mom has always made a big deal out of all of our birthdays. Now as Sean's birthday approaches, I miss him more and more. He loved birthday parties, but always seemed disappointed. Sean never got exactly what he wanted. Now every year, we're the ones who are disappointed.

Birthdays are like the holidays without the hype. Holidays are more publicized where birthdays kind of creep up on us. I used to love the holidays and I do like them again, but they aren't the same without Sean. I start to feel the sadness come back around the beginning of fall and it doesn't begin to go away until after January. I am beginning to feel like I've found a new normal and the pain isn't as intense this year.

Don't get me wrong, it still hurts and I still miss Sean, but the sadness seems a little dulled this year.

Each year, I think, here comes another one. One more birthday without my brother. One more year to remember the past birthdays and wish for future ones. Each year we still have a party for Sean. We just have to go to the cemetery. Sometimes we go separately, sometimes together. But we all go for the same reason. To pay tribute to that little boy born in the fall 1974. Happy Birthday, Little Bro. We miss you.

As long as I can
I will look at this world for both of us.

As long as I can
I will laugh with the birds,
I will sing with the flowers,
I will pray to the stars,
for the both of us.

As long as I can
I will remember how many things
on this earth were your joy.
And I will live as well
as you would want me to live
As long as I can.

Sascha - from Wintersun

A BIRTHDAY DRAWS NEAR

Your birthday draws near, it's been four since the accident took you from me and mine. And though the pain is still there, running as deep as a canyon, I've now carved my steps to bring you from the depths. Friends sometimes want to see and feel the memories of you. So I show them my chasm, lead them into my depths where you still live and breathe. To know you is to love you and I hope they can see what you mean to me.

-Trey Martin, Columbus, OH

They told us to call our loved ones,
To tell them we are going to die,
To tell them our plane will crash,
And to say good-bye.

Thousands of memories racing in our minds,
So many things to say,
Our lives are coming to an end,
God? I am on my way.

How could anyone be so cruel?
To hijack a plane,
They killed so many people!
They were plain insane!

I see the light,
But how can that be?
So many people to meet,
So many places to see!

Some people think this is funny,
Or a time to laugh,
But I think no one should ever again,
Feel the hijackers wrath.

No one should have to feel the pain
That I am about to endure
If I could switch places with some one
I would try to help them for sure.

So if some one you loved
Died here with
They ask you not to cry
They want you to live you life happily.

They say good-bye
Because they are now gone
Well here we go
Into the pentagon.

THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS CREDO

We need not walk alone. We are The Compassionate Friends.

We reach out to each other with love, with understanding, and with hope.

The children we mourn have died at all ages and from many different causes, but our love for them unites us.

Your pain becomes my pain, just as your hope becomes my hope.

We come together from all walks of life, from many different circumstances.

We are a unique family because we represent many races, creeds, and relationships.

We are young, and we are old. Some of us are far along in our grief, but others still feel a grief so fresh and so intensely painful that they feel helpless and see no hope.

Some of us have found our faith to be a source of strength, while some of us are struggling to find answers. Some of us are angry, filled with guilt or in deep depression, while others radiate an inner peace. But whatever pain we bring to this gathering of The Compassionate Friends, it is pain we will share, just as we share with each other our love for the children who have died.

We are all seeking and struggling to build a future for ourselves, but we are committed to building a future together. We reach out to each other in love to share the pain as well as the joy, share the anger as well as the peace, share the faith as well as the doubts, and help each other to grieve as well as to grow.

We need not walk alone. We are The Compassionate Friends.
