CHAPTER LEADER'S CORNER

June, summer vacations, Father's Day, Graduations, that is what comes to mind when I think of June. For our family June has changed a bit, Father's Day will forever be different without our son, Kevin being a part of it. I know that for my husband this is a hard time of year as he remembers the times we had with Kevin. My husband never had a Father's Day with both of his children as Kevin died on Mother's Day and Katie was only 5 months old. He makes the best of it with Katie and I making it nice for him. I know a lot of our Dads and Grandpas out there are feeling some of the same emotions, remember to hold on to the memories, I know this is one way our family gets through these special days.

This month we also celebrate graduations. I can only imagine how difficult it is to have a missing graduate. We all have so many dreams for our children and now they are gone, but their spirit lines on. Know that they have touched someone, somewhere and have made a difference. So, Congratulations to our Angel Graduates, thank you for being a part of our lives if only for a while.

Our meeting will be June 17, 2008 at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 5120 Harrison Road, Fredericksburg, VA in the Fellowship Hall beginning at 7:30 PM. I would like to thank Pastor Koehler for having us at his church.

If you would like to contribute something for the newsletter, deadline is June 20th for the newsletter. Thank you!

Well, I hope that you all have a wonderful month. If you are in need of anything, please call me at 540-775-8430, if there is no answer, please be sure to leave your name and number so I can get back to you or e-mail me at tcfred@yahoo.com.

A Love Song

The mention of my child's name
May bring tears to my eyes,
But it never fails to bring
Music to my ears.
If you really are my friend,
Please don't keep me
From hearing the beautiful music.
It soothes my broken heart
And fills my should with Love.

Nancy Williams
TCF - Central NJ

Memories

There is a place
That we call Memory -
A province by itself -
Which, though unseen,
Is home and haven
To the Heart.
And there,
In peace and beauty,
Waiting are those with whom
We shared our yesterdays.

Nancy Cassell
TCF - Holmdel, NJ

WHEN FATHERS WEEP AT GRAVES

I see them weep
 the fathers at the stones
 taking off the brave armor forced to wear in the work place
 clearing away the debris
 with gentle fingers
 inhaling the sorrow
 diminished by anguish
 their hearts desiring what they cannot have-- to walk hand in hand
 with children no longer held-- to all the fathers who leave a part of their hearts at the stones
 may breezes underneath trees of time
 ease their pain
 as they receive healing tears
 ...the gift the children give.

---Alice J. Wisler

For David, in memory of our son Daniel (August 25, 1992--February 2, 1997)

Whatever graduation ceremony you are apprehensive about, remember... your child has been promoted into the greatest class and has received the most honorable degree attainable.

Carol Hershey, TCF Livonia, MI

FATHER'S DAY

One of the many mixed feelings a father will have on Father's Day will be one of failure--failures as a protector of his child who has died. The roles of protector and father are synonymous. The father's duty is both to love and protect that child from harm. A man may intellectually know he did his best; but the child, his charge, is still painfully absent on this Father's Day.

A SPECIAL THOUGHT FOR MY SON

Jonathan Blake on his birthday

My Mom is a Survivor

My Mom is a survivor, or so I've heard it said. But I hear her crying at night when all others are in bed. I watch her lay awake at night and go to hold her hand. She doesn't know I'm with her to help her understand. But like the sands on the beach that never wash away... I watch over my surviving mom, who thinks of me each day. She wears a smile for others...a smile of disguise. But through Heaven's door I see tears flowing from her eyes. My mom tries to cope with death to keep my memory alive. But anyone who knows her knows it is her way to survive. As I watch over my surviving mom...through Heaven's open door. I try to tell her that angels protect me forever more. But I know that doesn't help her or ease the burden she bears. So if you get a chance, go visit her...And show her that you care. For no matter what she says...no matter what she feels. My surviving mom has a broken heart that time won't ever heal!

LOVE GIFTS

There are no dues or fees to belong to The Compassionate Friends. Just as our chapter is run entirely by volunteers interested in furthering the work of TCF, your voluntary, tax-deductible donations make it possible for us to mail this monthly newsletter, contact newly bereaved parents, continue our participation in TCF/National, and meet other chapter expenses.

Often, as they find hope and healing within the group, parents make a contribution usually in memory of a child who has died, or maybe a gift of thanksgiving for their surviving children.

These contributions are our only source of funds. All proceeds given to the our chapter are used within the community for outreach and to provide a place for newly bereaved fami-

Gifts are tax deductible. If you would like to make a donation, please send to The Compassionate Friends, The Fredericksburg Chapter, P.O. Box 172, King George, VA 22485. All gifts are welcome and truly appreciated.

THANK YOU!

Mr. & Mrs. Richardson in loving memory of their son

TCF National Conference for 2008 in Nashville

Nashville City, known as Music City USA, home of country western music, will be the host city for the 31st national conference of The Compassionate Friends July 18-20, 2008.

The conference committee selected the theme Volunteers for Healing—Friends for the Future, a name that is very appropriate as TCF national conferences are always regarded as great healing experiences and a great place to find friends for life. The 2008 conference will have special guest speakers and entertainers, more than 100 workshops covering most aspects of grief following the death of a child, and many additional activities including the ninth annual two-mile Walk to Remember® at 8 a.m. Sunday July, 20. A pre-conference day for professionals and interested bereaved parents, siblings, and grandparents will be Thursday, July 17.

Joe and Iris Lawley, founding parents of The Compassionate Friends, had planned to keynote at the conference, but for health reasons have been forced to cancel their plans to attend the conference on this, the 40th anniversary of the founding of the organization. All of us at TCF wish Joe and Iris a quick return to good health. TCF is pleased to announce that among keynoters at the national conference will be Bruce Murakami, who will share the riveting story of how he has bonded and teamed up, in the name of safety and saving lives, with the drag racing teen who ended the lives of his wife and daughter. Bruce's incredible story has been featured on Oprah, NBC Dateline, The John Walsh Show, The Montel Williams Show, and has been made into a Hallmark Hall of Fame movie Crossroads: A Story of Forgiveness.

Stop back for news on additional keynote speakers.

To allow everyone to be a part of the 2008 conference committee experience, the conference committee plans to decorate the conference area with real 7" vinyl records that have pictures of our TCF children remembered in the center. The "sponsor a record" program is similar to programs available for previous conferences. For a nominal charge (to help defray the cost of the conference), pictures sent in of our TCF children will be placed on the records (which are pressed with real grooves, but will not have music) and will decorate the registration area, and reflection and hospitality rooms.

To participate, download the Sponsor a Record order form and follow the easy instructions. Whether or not you are able to attend the conference, a child, sibling, grandchild, or loved one can still be remembered.

Those who attend the conference and have a record made will be able to carry them home. After the conference concludes, those unable to attend who would like their child's record can have it mailed to them.

The conference will be held at the Sheraton Music City Hotel and a room rate of $124 (plus tax) is now available for guests attending the conference. You can take advantage of this rate by calling 888-627-7060. Please mention that you are with The Compassionate Friends.

You may also register online at Room Registration

As always it is suggested that you register early to avoid disappointment. This rate will be available through June 20, 2008 (or until the room block has been filled). The beautiful Sheraton Music City Hotel, which recently completed a multi-million dollar renovation, is located at 777 McGavock Pike, Nashville, TN. 37214. As always, we suggest you register early to avoid disappointment.

To Our First-Time Readers and New Members and To Our Long-time Members

If you are receiving our newsletter for the first time, it is because someone has told us that you might find it helpful or you asked us to send it to you. We cordially invite you to attend any of our meetings which are held on the third Tuesday of each month at Redeemer Lutheran Church, in the Basement, 5120 Harrison Road, Fredericksburg from 7:00 to 9:00 PM. Nothing is required of you. There are no fees or dues. You need not speak a word. Coming to your first meeting is the hardest thing to do. But you have nothing to lose and everything to gain. If you have never come to a meeting, you are probably wondering what this group of people that you don't even know can do for you. It is here that comfort and support can be given by those that "have been there". We've all had chunks of our hearts torn out. Yet those holes get smaller with the loving touches, friendly smiles and kind reassuring words from each other.

Try not judge your first meeting as to whether or not TCF will work for you. At your first meeting you were hoping that TCF could get you over your terrible pain and depression and loneliness and guilt and anger and all of the other faces of grief. You came expecting to go home, feeling "better, if not cured." Instead you met other parents who are still coping with forms of grief after months or even years. Perhaps you didn't notice there were some parents who were doing "OK." But the bottom line is you may go home from the first meeting feeling worse than when you came. Give it another try you will probably find, that each meeting uncovers a piece of the puzzle of life after the death of a child. It may take several meetings, but, hopefully, you will find the road to recovery like we did.

To Our Long-time Members

"TCF gives me a sense of purpose. A good enough reason for you to consider sticking around a while after you feel you have reached an acceptance or at least worked through your grief. Others need you. Pass the love on—adopt a bereaved parent!"

Fay Harden, TCF - Tuscaloosa, AL

CAN YOU HELP? Do you remember your first meeting of The Compassionate Friends, those first months of your grief journey? You desperately needed someone to talk to, someone who knew the pain of losing a child, someone to hug you, cry with you, listen to you. And there are newly bereaved parents who now need your help. Are you willing to be there for them? If two years or more have passed since the death of your child, and you feel that you are ready to give back some of the support that was shown to you, please consider a place of service in our chapter. There is a job for everyone. Don't wait call me at 540-775-8430. If you can't serve, please, at least, come to meetings to lend your support and understanding to our newly bereaved families. We have had so many new members join us the past few months. We need all the help we can get to help them. Thank you from all of our children.

SIBLING CORNER

For all of children who have lost brothers and/or sisters

I Wish

I wish I could watch you work on cars, preparing for a race and being with our friends.
 I wish I could hear Mom attempt to wake you up, pounding on the floor, hoping you're downstairs.
 I wish you would ask to borrow money (and never plan to pay it back) or come out of my car for the night.
 I wish you could go up north with Dad or be with us on family vacations.
 I wish you'd be there when I come home on weekends, or come and visit me when I'm at school.
 I wish I could hear your dry sense of humor or see the look when you're trying to hold back a laugh.
 I wish you were here to keep the stories going, so I wouldn't need to keep memories alive.
 I wish I could set a place for you for Thanksgiving dinner or draw your name for Christmas.
 I wish you could hold your sister's new baby or be the best man at your brother's wedding.
 I wish I could see your hopes and dreams come true, and we could be there when we need each other.
 I wish I could hear you say, "I love you" just one more time.

Why?

When my sister died, I asked what every surviving sibling most likely asks himself: Why? For quite a while this question gave me something to strive for, a purpose to fight for. But what I soon realized was that there was no use in asking. That question is irrelevant; the point is moot. It no longer matters why she died. The fact remains that she died, and there is nothing I can do to change that, including finding the answer to why. There is no such answer.

If perchance God would speak to me, would that change anything? If he would say, "Trey, I took your sister because I want her up here in Heaven," what would that mean to me? I still lost her. I would still question God's decision.

What it comes down to, however, and although it is hard, we who have lost a sibling must accept the fact that they are now gone. Put aside the fact of why or how they died, and remember that they once lived and will always be alive in your memory and heart. Bypass the question of why they died, and instead concentrate on how we should now live. Remember, they would have wanted it that way.

THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS CREDO

We need not walk alone. We are The Compassionate Friends.

We reach out to each other with love, with understanding, and with hope.

The children we mourn have died at all ages and from many different causes, but our love for them unites us.

Your pain becomes my pain, just as your hope becomes my hope.

We come together from all walks of life, from many different circumstances.

We are a unique family because we represent many races, creeds, and relationships.

We are young, and we are old. Some of us are far along in our grief, but others still feel a grief so fresh and so intensely painful that they feel helpless and see no hope.

Some of us have found our faith to be a source of strength, while some of us are struggling to find answers. Some of us are angry, filled with guilt or in deep depression, while others radiate an inner peace. But whatever pain we bring to this gathering of The Compassionate Friends, it is pain we will share, just as we share with each other our love for the children who have died.

We are all seeking and struggling to build a future for ourselves, but we are committed to building a future together. We reach out to each other in love to share the pain as well as the joy, share the anger as well as the peace, share the faith as well as the doubts, and help each other to grieve as well as to grow.

We need not walk alone. We are The Compassionate Friends.
