The Secrets of My Success by Dr Hassan Endan

Want to be successful in your life?

This book is based on my true experience on how to become successful in my life and cope with everyday problems and issues that arise.

This book is a Lecture series that revealed the highest state technology on how to develop a high power laser, the laser engine, launching and orbiting micro satellites. Software on satellite controller and communications are also provided.

Besides that a stealth aircraft can be detected using the laser light backscatter from the emitted soot of the stealth aircraft petrol. A nuclear submarine can be detected using a white light laser (NAVO presentation as attached).

In the CD is enclosed a project paper for banks loan approval. A complete proposal on the LED (Light Emitting Diode) and LD (Laser diode) lighting is given on a step by step basis.
