'Trix'

in

Smirnoff Underbelly, Cowgate
7:40pm nightly from 31st July – 24th August
(excluding 8th & 16th August)

When Sugarhill Gang meet Salt 'n' Pepper and MC Hammer meets Missy Elliot, 'Trix' will spin you back in time with dance moves so hot you'll need your Ice, Ice Baby!

The soundtrack, mixed by renowned local DJ Reed Richards, journeys through the eras of hip-hop from its roots in the urban underground of 70s America through to present day artists, many of whom are now sampling from their old skool predecessors.

Following her successful Fringe debut last year with "From Scratch", Edinburgh-based choreographer Diane Smith has this year founded 'Trix' with the express intention of bringing a hip-hop show to the masses at Fringe 2003. Directing this project alongside fellow choreographer Jo Richards, the two have brought together a crew of up-and-coming performers, namely Blisterz, Kid Bif, Baz, Medic1, MoJo, VanG & Double D. Coming from a variety of artistic backgrounds, each contribute their individual style and character to the show which is reflected in the dynamic use of choreographic techniques.

Local theatre production and event management company UXL is taking "Back Spin" to the musical epicentre of the Festival, the Smirnoff Underbelly, where 'Trix' look set to make the theatre space within worthy of its name of the Belly Dancer!

"So what we're going to do right here is go back, way back, back into time"
("Troglodyte", The Jimmy Castor Bunch, from the Back Spin soundtrack)
