(As used below, "Applicant" means the Applicant and any Co-Applicant named herein, and "lender" means the lending company named above and each bank or finance company to which this application is being submitted for approval.) Applicant is applying for credit from Lender by this application. Applicant warrants and agrees that all information contained in this application is true, correct and complete, and agrees that Lender may rely on such information in considering this application. If anything occurs before or after credit is extended to Applicant that changes any such information, Applicant will promptly notify lender. Lender may take credit inquiries to verify any information given to lender in connection with this application, and Lender may exchange credit information about Applicant with others. As part of the investigation process, Lender also may request a consumer credit report or commercial credit report about Applicant in connection with this Application. Upon Applicant's request, Lender will tell Applicant whether or not a consumer credit report or a commercial credit report was obtained, and if such report was obtained, Lender will furnish Applicant with the name and address of the consumer credit reporting agency or commercial credit reporting agency that furnished the report. Lender may request new consumer credit report or commercial credit report without telling Applicant in connection with any update, renewal or extension of the maturity of any credit to Applicant. Applicant agrees that lender may retain this application whether or not credit is approved.
