

Daphne was not so chaste as she was changing

John Dowland

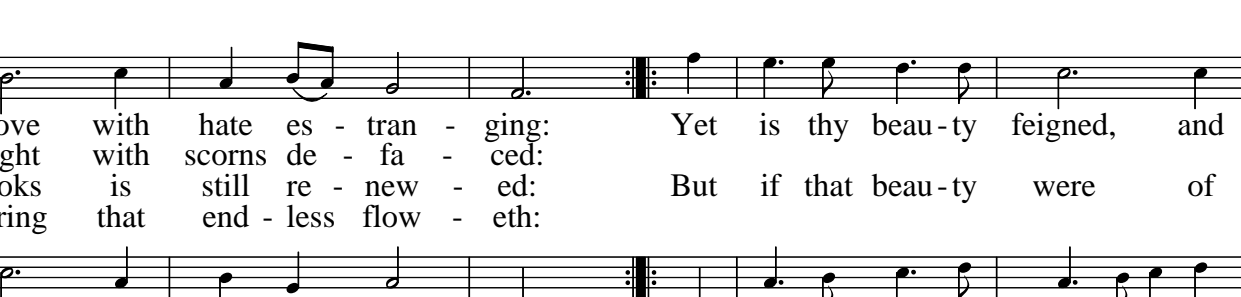

Voice

Daph-ne was not so chaste as she was chan - ging, Soon be - gun
He that to - day tri - umphs with fa - vors gra - ced, False be - fore Beau - ty can want no grace by true love view - ed, Fan - cy by Like to a fruit - ful tree it e - cer grow - eth, Or the fresh -

Lute

6

Love with hate es - tran - ging: Yet is thy beau - ty feigned, and night with scorns de - fa - ced:
looks is still re - new - ed: But if that beau - ty were of
- spring that end - less flow - eth:

11

ev - 'ry one de - sires, Still the false light, the false light one con - sent with love, Love should live free, should live free, of thy trai - t'rous fires.

15

and true plea - sure prove.